Reclaiming Africa Sam Moyo, Praveen Jha, Paris Yeros, 2018-09-03 This book presents the findings of research conducted by scholars and activists associated with the Agrarian South Network based mainly in Africa Asia and Latina America The research articulates a Southern perspective on the new scramble for Africa with a view to strengthen tri continental solidarities The book explains the significance of the new scramble in terms of the economic structures inherited from the late nineteenth century scramble and the subsequent post independence period The renewed competition for Africa s land and natural resources and the resumption of economic growth at the turn of the millennium have revived concerns regarding the continent's position in the world economy and the prospects for its development in the twenty first century In this regard the book addresses two related issues the character of the expansion of Southern competitors in relation to the more established Western strategies and the impact of the renewed influx of investments inland minerals and associated infrastructure The findings are presented with empirical rigor and conceptual clarity to enable the reader to grasp what really is at stake in the twenty first century an epic struggle to reclaim Africa from the monopolies that exercise control over its land minerals labour and destiny Research Anthology on Preparing School Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-07-24 The delivery of quality education to students relies heavily on the actions of an institution's administrative staff Effective leadership strategies allow for the continued progress of modern educational initiatives It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times and promote the accomplishments of their organization Research Anthology on Preparing School Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs is a vital reference source that offers theoretical and pedagogical research concerning the management of educational systems on both the national and international scale It also explores academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals Highlighting a range of topics such as strategic planning human resources and school culture this multi volume book is ideally designed for educators administrators principals superintendents board members researchers academicians policymakers and students

The Sustainability Ethic in the Management of the Physical, Infrastructural and Natural Resources of Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, 2019-05-27 Humanity has extensively exploited natural and physical resources since the Industrial Revolution in Europe A geological era now called the Anthropocene has been coined in environmental and developmental circles to mark the increased domination of humanity on Earth and its resources Today the ecological footprint on the fragile planet continues to increase Mass industrialisation like what China is doing and pushing for is one of the drivers for increased urbanisation that results in increased demand for land It is also the stimulus behind increased deforestation overfishing and pollution As the fragility of the Earth increases global bodies like the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change are pushing to reduce the Earth's temperature Human efforts to manage the problem cascade from a global to a regional to a national as well as to much localised scales Missing though are nuanced contributions at national and community levels which this book is an attempt to bridge The nagging sense of responsibility is what this book explores under the label of sustainability ethic As a case study the book examines the use of sustainability ethic in the management of the physical infrastructural and natural resources of Zimbabwe This ethic is built on pillars that include participation of people households in their pursuit for sustainable livelihoods appropriate technology tools and techniques for environmental protection It also hinges on stewardship and structures institutions policies and processes of governance and sustainability There are also the aspects of ethics laws and indigenous technical knowledge for sustainability capacity building and education plans and programmes for sustainability and population and demographic determinants processes and outcomes for sustainability The book is a timely contribution to an urgent global concern and climate change debate Health Systems Recovery in the Context of COVID-19 and Protracted Conflict Zsuzsanna Jakab, Sohel Saikat, Duncan Selbie, Saqif Mustafa, Yu Zhang, Geraldine McDarby, Mila Petrova, Redda Seifeldin, 2023-07-10 The COVID 19 pandemic has caused unprecedented disruption worldwide highlighting once again the interdependency of health and socioeconomic development and the global lack of health systems resilience Two years into the pandemic most countries report sustained disruptions across service delivery platforms and health areas with a profound impact on health outcomes The impact of these disruptions is magnified within marginalized communities and in countries experiencing protracted conflict There is an urgent need to focus on recovery through investment in the essential public health functions EPHFs and the foundations of health systems with a focus on primary health care and whole of government and society engagement The aim of this Research Topic is to gather transfer and promote operationalization of key experiences from COVID 19 to inform global and country level recovery that better promote health guide policy direction towards building health systems resilience and thereby ensure economic and social prosperity Experience with COVID 19 has demonstrated that traditional approaches to health system strengthening have failed to achieve the complementary goals of Universal Health Coverage UHC and health security with the divide between the most vulnerable and well off only widening Much of what had been learned from previous experiences such as Ebola in West Africa has not been widely applied This has left health and economic systems vulnerable to 21 st century public health challenges ranging from conflict and natural disasters to aging demographics and rising rates of non communicable and communicable diseases and antimicrobial resistance These challenges require intentional focus and investment as well as whole of government and society engagement with health to build health system resilience Greater action is needed to prevent the devastating effects of war and conflict on the health of the most vulnerable This Research Topic will convene the knowledge and practices of leaders in public health health systems and humanitarian and development sectors This is to ensure lessons from COVID 19 inform the recovery agenda and promote sustainable health and socioeconomic recovery for all Lest we forget and find ourselves again unprepared and vulnerable in the face of an even greater threat
