Coe, Henry Wai-Chung Yeung, 2015 Accelerating processes of economic globalization have fundamentally reshaped the organization of the global economy towards much greater integration and functional interdependence through cross border economic activity In this interconnected world system a new form of economic organization has emerged Global Production Networks GPNs This brings together a wide array of economic actors most notably capitalist firms state institutions labour unions consumers and non government organizations in the transnational production of economic value National and sub national economic development in this highly interdependent global economy can no longer be conceived of and understood within the distinct territorial boundaries of individual countries and regions Instead global production networks are organizational platforms through which actors in these different national or regional economies compete and cooperate for a larger share of the creation transformation and capture of value through transnational economic activity They are also vehicles for transferring the value captured between different places This book ultimately aims to develop a theory of global production networks that explains economic development in the interconnected global economy While primarily theoretical in nature it is well grounded in cutting edge empirical work in the parallel and highly impactful strands of social science literature on the changing organization of the global economy relating to global commodity chains GCC global value chains GVC and global production networks GPN

Origination Andy Pike, 2015-06-02 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places

China's One Belt One Road Initiative Tai Wei Lim, Wen Xin Lim, Henry Hing Lee Chan, Katherine Hui-yi Tseng, 2016-07-28 Chinese President Xi Jinping launched the Silk Road Economic Belt component of the One Belt One Road OBOR initiative at Kazakhstan in 2013 OBOR is a development strategy and framework that focuses on connectivity and cooperation among countries primarily in Eurasia It consists of two main components the land based Silk Road Economic Belt SREB and ocean going Maritime Silk Road MSR This book studies the equilibrium or balance between overland and maritime trade routes of OBOR This book has two major sections The interpretive section examines contemporary media narratives related to the OBOR initiative and how contemporary commentators appropriate narratives about historical events related to the maritime Silk Road to interpret current policy agendas and legitimize diplomatic or economic exchanges In terms of institutional studies the chapters related to Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank AIIB will look at the issues facing the Bank in its quest in forming a new world platform for multilateral development financing The other section the empirical case study of the publication highlights the fact that Euro China High Speed Rail HSR and Central Asia China HSR are not viable at the moment as passenger volume is not sufficient to justify the HSR line This section examines the overland route of the OBOR and looks at recent Chinese HSR history and conventional sub high speed rail technology development and identifies technical economic criteria determining the appropriate technology for a certain line The chapter in this section will use the developed criteria to analyze the various rail linkage projects currently under study in the OBOR framework highlight the economic bureaucratic and geo political challenges that these projects likely face and lay down conditions that will determine the outcome of these projects

Hollywood has a long tradition of bringing in emigre directors from around the world dating back to the silent era Today as the film industry is ever more global the people who make blockbuster movies seemingly reflect this tradition hailing from many countries across the world But that fact hides a fundamental difference one that Melis Behlil examines in Hollywood is Everywhere today s Hollywood studios are themselves transnational with ownership structures and financial arrangements that stretch far beyond the borders of the United States Seen in that context today s international directors are less analogous to the emigre talent of the past than to ordinary transnational employees of other major global corporations
