Wasteland Oliver Franklin-Wallis, 2023-06-22 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2024 WAINWRIGHT PRIZE FOR CONSERVATION WRITING A BBC RADIO 4 BOOK OF THE WEEK ONE OF THE NEW YORKER'S BEST BOOKS OF 2023 INCLUDED IN THE GUARDIAN'S BEST IDEAS BOOKS OF 2023 A gripping read that will anger as much as it fascinates Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall An incredible journey into the world of rubbish full of fascinating characters and mind bending facts Oliver Bullough author of Moneyland Urgent probing and endlessly interesting Cal Flyn author of Islands of Abandonment There are stories in all our discarded things who made them what they meant to a person before they were thrown away In the end it all ends up in the same place the endless ingenuity of humanity in one filthy fascinating mass When we throw things away what does that actually mean Where does it go and who deals with it when it gets there In Wasteland award winning journalist Oliver Franklin Wallis takes us on an eye opening journey through the global waste industry From the mountainous landfills of New Delhi to Britain s overflowing sewers from hollowed out mining towns in the USA to Ghana s flooded second hand markets we meet the people on the frontline of our waste crisis both those being exploited and those determined to make a difference On the way we discover the corporate greenwashing that started the recycling movement the dark truth behind our second hand donations and come face to face with the 10 000 year legacy of our nuclear waste Both shocking and hopeful Wasteland is the timely and ultimately human story at the heart of an urgent global issue

The Social Life of Skills in the Global South Trent Brown, Geert De Neve, 2025-06-23 This book expands understandings of how skills are defined acquired and utilized in Global South contexts Skills and skill development are increasingly prominent focal points for governments in the Global South and international development bodies Yet policymakers and practitioners promoting skill development often overlook the everyday realities of how skills are learned and acquired and how they are deployed and valued by individuals and communities Frequently they ignore the social and institutional barriers that prevent people from using their skills in meaningful or remunerative ways By focusing on the the social life of skills the chapters in this volume invite a broader conceptualization of skills their development and their application in Global South contexts They explore four main areas of theorization and practice 1 The social and political processes by which certain types of work and people are labeled as skilled or unskilled 2 The different ways people acquire skills formal informal and nonformal 3 The political economy of skills and skill development and their imbrication in forms of exploitation and intersecting inequalities 4 The role of skills in the expression of aspirations identities and agency This book will appeal to students and researchers in the fields of development studies sociology anthropology education and labor studies particularly those focusing on the Global South It will also appeal to policymakers practitioners and development organizations working on skill development and vocational training The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Waste to Wealth Peter Lacy, Jakob Rutqvist, 2016-04-30 Waste to Wealth proves that green and growth need not be binary alternatives The book examines five new business models that provide circular growth from deploying sustainable resources to the sharing economy before setting out what business leaders need to do to implement the models successfully

Outside the Box Marc Levinson, 2021-09-28 The author offers a brief history of globalization through the stories of the people and companies that built global supply chains The two spheres the private sector and government did not go global in tandem and many developments in one sphere were far more impactful in the other than imagined at the time The book narrates the development of global supply chains in response to trends in both telling stories ranging from a Prussian born trader in New Jersey in the 1760s who dreamed of building a vertically integrated metals empire to new megaships too big to call on most of the world s ports leaving half empty as globalization entered a new stage in its history around 2006 Bringing the story up to the early 2020s the author illustrates how we re not experiencing the end of globalization only its transformation As one type of globalization is declining a new one is on the rise Orpheus: The Musician Who Descended to the Underworld
