American Baptist Sunday School Program

William Cathcart

American Baptist Sunday School Program:

The American Baptist Almanac for the Year of Our Lord ..., 1857 American Baptist Memorial, 1856 The American Baptist Woman, 1990 Religious Bodies: 1916 United States. Bureau of the Census, William Chamberlin Hunt, Edwin Munsell Bliss, 1919 Baptist Battles Nancy Tatom Ammerman, 1990 Since 1979 Southern Baptists have been noisily struggling to agree on symbols beliefs and practices as they attempt to make sense of their changing social world Nancy Ammerman has carefully documented their struggle She tells the story of the Baptist reversal from a moderate to a fundamentalist outlook and speculates on the future of the denomination Ammerman places change among the Southern Baptists in the context of the cultural and economic changes that have transformed the South from its rural past into an urbanizing culturally diverse region Not only did the South change Southern Baptists did as well Reflecting this diversity the Southern Baptist bureaucracy was relatively progressive During the 1960s and 1970s moderate sentiments prevailed while fundamentalists remained on the margins These two were however becoming increasingly divergent in what they considered important about being a Baptist in their views about the Bible in their attitudes on the origination of women on Christian morals and on national politics Late in the 1970s a fundamentalist coalition emerged followed by unsuccessful efforts by moderates to oppose it The battles escalated until 1985 when 45 000 Baptists gathered in Dallas to decide between contending presidential candidates That dramatic event illustrated the extent to which organized political resources were determining the course of the conflict Ammerman studies these strategies and resources as well Examining how this tension affected Baptists Ammerman begins with case studies of the change it is producing in Baptist agencies But she also brings us back to the local churches and individual believers who are renegotiating their relationships within their denomination She asks whether the denomination's polity can accommodate an increasingly diverse group of Baptists or whether the only way dissidents can have a voice is through schism American Baptists in Mission, 1998 The Baptist Encyclopædia William Cathcart, 1881 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 The Lord Gave Me This Terrell Carter, 2016-09-29 When it comes to learning necessary ministry leadership skills African Americans are unique in their view towards traditional theological education They have a historical educational experience that requires anyone attempting to teach them ministry skills to acknowledge the differences in how blacks and whites have learned leadership skills through the history of the United States Those who seek to teach these pastors and leaders must be supported by a creative learning process and delivery system that incorporates the felt needs of leaders acknowledges their long held distrust towards traditional white theological educational processes develops a way to have a regular presence and relationship with black churches offers learning experiences that are provided through multiple formats and is taught by instructors who have similar life experiences as the pastors and leaders being taught There are opportunities for traditional seminaries and universities to help meet the needs of African American ministry leaders through the development of programs that take these points into account and create opportunities that make these potential learners feel welcome and accepted as brothers and sisters in Christ whose experiences within ministry are valuable and contribute to the building of God's kingdom Tending the Flock K. Brynolf Lyon, Archie Smith, 1998-01-01 Many churches are unprepared to face the challenges inherent in family life today Others though have developed innovative and exciting responses In this book case studies provide insights and strategies to help develop a practical theological perspective on family ministry This new perspective represents a fresh and powerful witness to the place of families within contemporary communities of faith The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization Comprehensive Dictionary of wisdom theological liberals led the Southern Baptist Convention to reject segregation and racism in the twentieth century That's only half the story Liberals criticized segregation before mainstream Southern Baptists They created racially integrated ministry opportunities They pressed the Southern Baptist Convention to reject segregation Yet historians have discounted the role of conservative theology in the convention's shift away from racial segregation and prejudice This book chronicles how conservative theology proved remarkably compatible with efforts toward racial justice in America's largest Protestant denomination between 1954 and 1995 At times conservative theology was even a catalyst for rejecting racial prejudice Efforts to eradicate racism and segregation were in fact least successful when they appealed to the social gospel or appeared to draw from liberal theology
