Growth Mr.Joong Kang,Mr.Alessandro Prati,Mr.Alessandro Rebucci,2013-03-20 We use a heterogeneous panel VAR model identified through factor analysis to study the dynamic response of exports imports and per capita GDP growth to a global aid shock We find that a global aid shock can affect exports imports and growth either positively or negatively As a result the relation between aid and growth is mixed consistent with the ambiguous results in the existing literature For most countries in the sample when aid reduces exports and imports it also reduces growth and when aid increases exports and imports it also increases growth This evidence is consistent with a DD hypothesis but also shows that aid receiving countries are not doomed to catch DD Musculoskeletal System - Guide - 2024 Akash Tiwari,2024-01-13 Psychosocial

Perspectives on Community Responses to Covid-19 Emma O'Dwyer,Luiz Gustavo Silva Souza,2022-12-29 This highly topical edited book documents the community response to Covid 19 across national contexts exploring the widespread development and mobilisation of community initiatives and groups It provides rich analysis of case studies from the Global North and South including South Africa the USA India China Mexico Brazil Italy Australia the UK Turkey and Argentina The Covid 19 pandemic motivated a significant community response globally with the widespread development and mobilisation of bottom up community initiatives and groups These community responses were an essential yet often unseen and unrecognised means by which people survived the pandemic This book asks questions such as how were community responses to Covid 19 shaped by national cultural and political processes and phenomena how did community responses to Covid 19 interact with public policies on health education and social welfare and what are the likely political implications of the community response to Covid 19 Discussing the provision of abortion care in Latin America the support to marginalized communities in Kolkata and the mobilisation of carnival krewes in New Orleans to give a few examples the text adopts and develops a novel socio cultural psychological approach weaving together contributions from scholars working in diverse disciplinary fields The text highlights the importance of integrating multiple levels of analysis including psychological sociological and political ideological to investigate how communities respond to crises such as the Covid 19 pandemic and how they can plan for and manage future crises This is essential reading for academics and students in psychology and the social sciences as well as policy makers charities and third sector organisations
