Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa, 1948-1998 Ruth Craggs, Hannah Neate, 2023-10-16

DECOLONISING GEOGRAPHY This book presents an extraordinarily sensitive account of geography s histories in five African countries subjected to British colonial rule Craggs and Neate draw together political and imaginative processes of decolonisation through an innovative biographical approach that humanizes and enlivens the story of our academic discipline It will be an invaluable resource for those seeking a deeper understanding of decolonisation its recent trajectories and far reaching implications on the African continent Shari Daya Affiliate Associate Professor in Environmental and Geographical Science University of Cape Town By placing the experiences ideas and practices of African geographers in the center of their analyses Craggs and Neate provide an unprecedented account of historical and contemporary decolonizing struggles within Geography and the academy This book should be required reading for all those looking to decolonize the discipline and dislodge it from its Global North histories institutions and ideologies Mona Domosh Professor of Geography The Joan P and Edward J Foley Jr 1933 Professor Dartmouth College This meticulous work explores how colonialism decolonization and postcolonialism shaped African geography and geographers It sheds light on efforts to Africanize the discipline a process which I was both witness to and a participant in Stanley Okafor Professor of Geography Retired University of Ibadan How did a generation of academic geographers engage with constitutional decolonisation during the end of the British empire in Africa In Decolonising Geography Disciplinary Histories and the End of the British Empire in Africa 1948 1998 Ruth Craggs and Hannah Neate explore how the teaching research administration and activism of geographers in Africa shaped the discipline and the post colonial geopolitics of the continent The authors follow the professional lives of individual geographers to provide fresh insights into decolonisation in the former British Empire in Africa drawing from extensive archival research and more than 40 oral history interviews with geographers in Ghana Nigeria South Africa Tanzania and the UK Decolonising Geography is a must read for any reader in the UK and Africa with an interest in the relationships between geography and decolonisation Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney, Pam Christie, 2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguaging It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces Sustainable Meat Production and Processing Charis M. Galanakis, 2018-10-29 Sustainable Meat Production and Processing presents current solutions to promote industrial sustainability and best practices in meat production from postharvest to consumption The book acts as a guide for meat and animal scientists technologists engineers professionals and producers The 12 most trending topics of sustainable meat processing and meat by products management are included as are advances in ingredient and processing systems for meat products techno functional ingredients for meat products protein recovery from meat processing by products applications of blood proteins artificial meat production possible uses of processed slaughter co products and environmental considerations Finally the book covers the preferred technologies for sustainable meat production natural antioxidants as additives in meat products and facilitators and barriers for foods containing meat co products Analyzes the role of novel technologies for sustainable meat processing Covers how to maintain sustainability and achieve high levels of meat quality and safety Presents solutions to improve productivity and environmental sustainability Takes a proteomic approach to characterize the biochemistry of meat quality defects Engineering ,1869

Adopting the Track of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Admission Forms 2016 Fort Hare

In a global taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the published word often diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, located within the pages of Admission Forms 2016 Fort Hare a charming literary treasure brimming with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving examination, we can investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
