fields as anthropology business administration ecology economics geography history hospitality leisure and planning Art and the City Sarah Schrank,2011-01-01 Art and the City explores the contentious relationship between civic politics and visual culture in Los Angeles Struggles between civic leaders and modernist artists to define civic identity and control public space highlight the significance of the arts as a site of political contest in the twentieth century The Great Bean Fields Domi Smart,2017-05-06 This is a book on Dom Smart s experiences with the British Mental health system leading to an in depth on the road novel The book ranges between 1984 and 1992 when Dom Smart was eighteen years of age to twenty five years of age Suicide and survival are the main subjects of this book A lot of hitch hiking and travel around Britain are described in a torturous and blood curdling environment Dom Smart is currently diagnosed with schizophrenia and writes of his tales and episodes experienced by him in this true life novel Beginner Pysanky Lorrie Popow,Donna Wolfe,2018-09-13 Lorrie and Donna have loved the art of pysanky since both of them have been children This book is a step by step tutorial on how to create the beautiful egg art that originated in Ukraine a very long time ago Text illustrations and full color photos will guide you through selecting an egg preparing dyes writing with wax and a kistka and varnishing a pysanka Provided by publisher Making Amazing Art Sandi Henry,2000-01-30 Art and craft projects introduce children to the seven elements of artistic design line shape texture color value form and space Nothing and Everything Engin Ozertugrul,2025-05-08 In Nothing and Everything a new poetry collection by Dr Engin Ozertugrul the reader is invited into a deeply personal exploration of human existence where paradox and transcendence coexist Known for his previous work Interview with OCD Dr Ozertugrul turns his attention toward poetic expression as a channel for unpacking the intricate relationship between consciousness emotion and divinity Rather than writing with structured rhyme or literary perfection Dr Ozertugrul uses repetition simplicity and second person narration to communicate a universal truth we are all connected we are all uncertain and that s where the beauty lies Poetry is the universal mathematics without numbers it measures the depth of the spirit and heart says Ozertugrul Nothing and Everything avoids common poetic tropes this is not a book about romance or singular religious views Instead it is a collection rooted in the raw human experience fear sadness anger and hope Each poem wrestles with the limitations of what we can truly understand while never descending into nihilism The author leads readers instead to a place of meditative peace born of acceptance and awareness Dr Ozertugrul s inspiration is wide ranging and spiritual without adhering to a single tradition He credits the influence of Transcendental Meditation TM which has guided his understanding of consciousness and personal transformation I am grateful for Maharishi Mahesh Yogi s TM It has had a profound impact on my experience of an amazing thing called consciousness he writes The poems reflect this practice and the insights gained from other thinkers who shaped his worldview Rumi Spinoza Carl Jung Kant Emerson and William Blake among them Their philosophical echoes are present but reinterpreted through a deeply contemporary and individual lens This book is about being human Ozertugrul says It s about our challenges disappointments It s about our fears anger and hate but it is also about joy and peace Written with what the author calls a better use of his OCD mind the poems layer repetition to create a kind of spiritual hypnosis Readers familiar with mindfulness meditation and even existential philosophy will find something resonant in its lines This book is likely to appeal strongly to adults with an interest in meditation mindfulness and nontraditional spirituality Communities associated with TM and organizations like the David Lynch Foundation will find much to contemplate in its pages Though this is not a self help book Nothing and Everything does offer comfort Not by giving answers but by giving readers space to sit with their questions Code Art Basics Zoe

Codewell, AI, 2025-02-17 Code Art Basics explores the fascinating intersection of art and programming revealing how generative art is created using JavaScript and coding libraries This book bridges the gap between artistic vision and computational execution empowering readers to create dynamic patterns and animations Did you know that generative art traces its roots back to mid 20th century cybernetics Or that relatively simple code can produce complex and beautiful visuals The book begins with the fundamentals of JavaScript and canvas manipulation progresses through pattern generation techniques like tiling and recursion and culminates in animation principles Throughout the book code examples and visual demonstrations bring these concepts to life drawing inspiration from p5 js and Processing This practical hands on approach makes the process accessible allowing readers to quickly start experimenting with algorithmic art and creative coding
