Bounded Disciplines and Unbounded Problems Baruch Fischhoff, 2025-01-12 People often face complex novel fateful and wildly unbounded problems throughout their lives In their work disciplinary scientists hone their wisdom on the complexities of necessarily bounded problems Bounded Disciplines and Unbounded Problems offers a vision for schools of management science to bring these worlds together by doing more of what they do best co creating solutions in ways that serve the world and the disciplines Disciplinary wisdom is illustrated with studies eliciting beliefs and preferences Collaboration is illustrated with a wide variety of applications including climate energy health security technology and natural disasters The proposed strategy for bonding bounded disciplines offers a realistic path forward at a time when the value of academia is sometimes questioned by the public students and even some of its members

Epidemic Cinema Julia Echeverría, 2023-12-08 This book examines the recent trend in global cinema to feature infectious disease As the global crisis of the COVID 19 pandemic materialised the anxieties and discourses of world risk that had long been portrayed in popular media the book provides a novel definition of the epidemic film genre and offers a systematic look into the narrative and stylistic conventions that characterise it Epidemic Cinema traces the evolution of the genre from its early cinematic origins to establish the founding principles of a genre standing at the crossroads between science fiction and horror It draws on close textual analysis to show how the pandemic reified one of the central predicaments of epidemic narratives the constant tension existing between free floating phenomena and the impulse to control and resist such phenomena ultimately epitomised by the trope of the border Showing how infectious diseases offer a rich allegorical frame which cinema uses to articulate timely anxieties of growingly invisible and deterritorialised risks the author presents the prevalence of contagion in popular culture as a symptom of this growingly viral and virus ridden context both in its most literal and metaphorical sense This insightful study will interest students and scholars of film studies global cinema science fiction horror popular culture and genre theory

The Social Nature of Emotions Gerben A. van Kleef, Arik Cheshin, Agneta H. Fischer, Iris K. Schneider, 2016-08-11 Emotion is a defining aspect of the human condition Emotions pervade our social and professional lives they affect our thinking and behavior and they profoundly shape our relationships and social interactions Emotions have traditionally been conceptualized and studied as individual phenomena with research focusing on cognitive and expressive components and on physiological and neurological processes underlying emotional reactions Over the last two decades however an increasing scholarly awareness has emerged that emotions are inherently social that is they tend to be elicited by other people expressed at other people and regulated to influence other people or to comply with social norms Fischer Keltner Parkinson 1996 Van Kleef 2009 Despite this increasing awareness the inclusion of the social dimension as a fundamental element in emotion research is still in its infancy Fischer Doosje Branscombe Spears Fischer Hess Mesquita Tiedens 2001 The third set of questions has to do with the ways in which people respond to the emotional expressions of others and how such responses are shaped by the social context Studies have shown that emotional expressions can influence the behavior of others for instance in group settings Barsade 2002 Cheshin Rafaeli Heerdink Van Kleef Homan Van Kleef De Dreu Van Kleef Homan Beersma Van Knippenberg 2010 This Research Topic centers around these and related questions regarding the social nature of emotions thereby highlighting new research opportunities and guiding future directions in the field We bring together a collection of papers to provide an encyclopedic open access snapshot of the current state of the art of theorizing and research on the social nature of emotion The state of the art work that is presented in this e book helps advance the understanding of the social nature of emotions It brings together the latest cutting edge findings and thoughts on this central topic in emotion science as it heads toward the next frontier

Euro Horror Ian Olney, 2013-02-07 Beginning in the 1950s Euro Horror movies materialized in astonishing numbers from Italy Spain and France and popped up in the US at rural drive ins and urban grindhouse theaters such as those that once dotted New York s Times Square Gorier sexier and stranger than most American horror films of the time they were embraced by hardcore fans and denounced by critics as the worst kind of cinematic trash In this volume Olney explores some of the most popular genres of Euro Horror cinema including giallo films named for the yellow covers of Italian pulp fiction the S M horror film and cannibal and zombie films and develops a theory that explains their renewed appeal to audiences today

Quebec Cinema in the 21st Century Michael Gott, Thibaut Schilt, 2024-02-06 This collection of ten chapters and three original interviews with Qu b cois filmmakers focuses on the past two decades of Quebec cinema and takes an in depth look at a primarily Montreal based filmmaking industry whose increasingly diverse productions continue to resist the hegemony of Hollywood and to exist as a visible and successful hub of French language and ever more multilingual cinema in North America This volume picks up where Bill Marshall s 2001 Quebec National Cinema ends to investigate the inherently global nature of Quebec s film industry and cinematic output since the beginning of the new millennium Through their analyses of contemporary films Une colonie Avant les rues Bon cop bad cop Les Affam s Tom la ferme Uvanga among others directors including Xavier Dolan Denis C t Sophie Desrape Chlo Robichaud Jean Marc Vall e and Monia Chokri and genres such as the buddy comedy and the zombie film our authors examine the growing tension between Quebec cinema as a national cinema and as an art form that reflects the transnationalism of today s world a new form of fluidity of individual experiences and an increasing on screen presence of Indigenous subjects both within and outside the borders of the province The book concludes with specially conducted interviews with filmmakers Denis Chouinard Bachir Bensadekk and Marie H l ne Cousineau who provide their views and insights on contemporary Quebec filmmaking
