on today's most pressing economic issues Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa, Tendai Chikweche, 2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe. The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier. These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society, polity and economy. But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications. Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions. By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice, Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans.

Policy Solutions for Economic Growth in a Developing Country Nassir Ul Haq Wani, 2024-06-17 Perspectives on Afghanistan's Trade and Development offers a rich and varied policy analysis for those who wish to design a policy to bolster exports from Afghanistan and for academicians, researchers and students who wish to gain greater insight into this developing economy. Why Mugabe Won Stephen Chan, Julia Gallagher, 2017-06-09 This book examines the key events, personalities and wider socio-political context that led to Mugabe's victory in the 2013 Zimbabwean elections.

Contemporary Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Stephen Nkansah Morgan, Ovet Nwosimiri, 2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights, reflections, questions, issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics. Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation. While it is a relatively new discipline, there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives. However, only a few studies have focused on development ethics from the African perspective. To address this gap, the book seeks to answer critical questions such as: What does development mean to Africans? How can we measure development? Who gets to decide and what constitutes just development in Africa? With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds, the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa, Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics, Politics and African Development, Migration and African development, Gender Ethics and Socio-economic Development in Africa, Education Ethics and African development. It is an essential resource for researchers, lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies. Displacement Economies in Africa Amanda Hammar, 2014-05-08 Large scale displacement, whether caused by war, state-related political or development projects, different forms of political violence, structural crisis or even natural disasters, evokes many stereotyped assumptions about those forcibly displaced or emplaced At the same time there is a problematic lack of attention paid to the diversity of actors strategies and practices that reshape the world in the face and chronic aftermath of dramatic moments of violent dislocation In this highly original volume based on empirical case studies from across sub Saharan Africa the authors reveal the paradoxical effects both intended and unexpected that displacement produces and that manifest themselves in displacement economies An important contribution to a topic of growing scholarly and policy interest

Global Storms and Africa in World Politics Gordon Moyo, Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2025-04-10 Africa provides a unique perspective to understand today's global crises This book explores how Africa positioned historically in a subaltern role due to colonialism offers a critical lens on the shifting dynamics of the modern world system The book presents how Africa's continued struggles against racism colonialism and economic exploitation make it a powerful site for rethinking the global order Addressing ecological ideological financial health and systemic crises the book demonstrates how problems in Africa are intrinsically linked to global issues It argues that the so called decolonization after 1945 was superficial maintaining global hierarchies that marginalize Africa With insights from thinkers like Nkrumah and Rodney it challenges the entrenched structures of racial capitalism and offers new pathways for genuine global equity and justice This book will appeal to students scholars and researchers of international relations economics political science and related disciplines as well as policy makers interested in a better understanding of the ongoing global power shift and Africa s challenges and position within the modern world system

The impacts of COVID-19 and policy responses in rural economies Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Kagin, J, Filipski, M, Fletcher-Taylor, J, Gupta, A, Lindsay, A, Edward Taylor, J, Whitney, E, 2023-01-19 The impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic and government policies to limit its spread are multi faceted and complex Market linkages transmit these impacts through economies from directly affected actors to others in both the urban and rural spheres Economic contexts including the structure of local economies shape the transmission of impacts on rural men and women Because of this the pandemic lockdowns and mitigation policies influence outcomes in complex ways In most cases the magnitudes and even the signs of impacts cannot be determined ex ante In this study we use multiple local economy wide impact evaluation LEWIE models to estimate the impacts of the pandemic and lockdowns on rural producers and households in a diversity of economic and agro climatic settings using simulation methods We also examine the likely effects of alternative mitigation measures

Women Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Marina Dabić, Léo-Paul Dana, Dina Modestus Nziku, Veland Ramadani, 2022-06-17 According to a 2018 World Bank report Africa is the only region with more women than men choosing to become entrepreneurs a phenomenon that is not the subject of adequate discussion This book reveals the latest research based understanding of the entrepreneurial activities of women in sub Saharan Africa Specially invited subject experts present salient dimensions of entrepreneurship by African women from environmental factors to motivations and influencers as well as financial and non financial constraints and highlight the significant role of cultural differences This book provides a mixture of theoretical conceptual and empirical research and fills the knowledge gap by presenting a wide range of opportunities and challenges faced by sub Saharan African women entrepreneurs This book will help policy makers and academic researchers in understanding the role of institutions and entrepreneurship policy in building a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem in the region

Sustainable Development Goals for Society Vol. 2 Godwell Nhamo, David Chikodzi, Kaitano Dube, 2021-06-26 This book profiles various cases that are emerging in addressing global challenges in the context of SDGs for society in the era of climate change and covers case studies of projects being undertaken to tackle biodiversity food security climate change energy and water security The book is written by 37 authors and will appeal to various stakeholders including academics working within the identified thematic areas policy planners development agencies governments and United Nations agencies The adoption of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in 2015 ushered a new era in the global development agenda as the world transitioned from the Millennium Development Goals MDGs The new era of SDGs that are all inclusive unlike the MDGs with the focus now being on ensuring human success that is predicated on environmental protection. The year 2020 marked five years post the adoption of the SDGs with increased calls for stock taking of progress made amid strong calls for a decade of action to accelerate the delivery of the SDGs by 2030. These calls have been louder now given the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic which reset the global economy and increased intensity of extreme weather events across the world. Since climate change has emerged as one of the biggest threats to the achievement of the SDGs there has been growing concerns on its impact on biodiversity loss and the extinction of some species. There are also concerns regarding increased food insecurity at the household level in some parts of the world particularly in Asia and Africa. With the demand for climate change action on the increase there have also been growing calls for the big carbon emitters to drastically cut their emissions and invest in clean energy to save the planet by following development pathways making emissions stay under the 1.5°C increase in temperature.

Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-01-17. Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar, Dorothy Mpabanga, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa. The people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community (SADC). Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa. The people's agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcness and sadcnization. More specifically democratization and integration are about people, citizens, the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states. Using the case studies of Angola, Botswana, Madagascar, Mozambique, South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the people of Southern Africa. The Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus.

Aid and Authoritarianism in Africa Tobias Hagmann, Professor Filip Reyntjens, 2016-03-15. In 2013 almost half of Africa's top aid recipients were ruled by authoritarian regimes. While the West may claim to promote democracy and human rights in practice major bilateral and international donors such as USAID, DFID, the World Bank and the European Commission have seen their aid policies become ever more entangled with the survival of their authoritarian protégés. Local citizens thus find themselves at the receiving end of a compromise between aid agencies and government elites in which development policies are shaped in the interests of maintaining the status quo. Aid and Authoritarianism in Africa sheds light on the political intricacies and moral dilemmas raised by the relationship between foreign aid and autocratic rule in Africa. Through contributions by leading experts exploring the revival of authoritarian development politics in Ethiopia, Uganda, Rwanda, Cameroon, Mozambique and Angola.

the book exposes shifting donor interests and rhetoric as well as the impact of foreign aid on military assistance rural development electoral processes and domestic politics In the process it raises an urgent and too often neglected question to what extent are foreign aid programmes actually perpetuating authoritarian rule Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa Kurebwa, Jeffrey, Dodo, Obadiah, 2019-06-28 Active political engagement requires the youth of today to begin their journeys now to be leaders of tomorrow Young individuals are instrumental in providing valuable insight into issues locally as well as on a national and international level Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa examines the role of young peoples involvement in governance processes in Africa and demonstrates how they are engaging in active citizenship There is an intrinsic value in upholding their right to participate in decisions that affect their daily lives and their communities and the content within this publication supports this by focusing on topics such as good citizenship youth empowerment democratic awareness political climate and socio economic development It is designed for researchers academics policymakers government officials and professionals whose interests center on the engagement of youth in active citizenship roles Xenophobia and Nativism in Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean Sabella O. Abidde, Michael R. Hall, José de Arimatéia da Cruz, 2023-07-31 This book historicises and analyses the increasing incidence of xenophobia and nativism in Africa Latin America and the Caribbean It examines how xenophobia and nativism impact the political cohesion and social fabric of states and societies in the regions and offers solutions to aid policy formation and implementation Rather than utilising an overarching framework individual theory is applied to chapters to analyse the diverse connections between xenophobia and nativism in the regions The book explores the economic nationalistic political social cultural and psychological triggers for xenophobia and nativism and their impact on an increasingly interconnected and interrelated world In addition to the individual and comparative examination of these triggers the book outlines how they can be decreased or altered and argues that Pan Africanism and the unity of purpose among diverse groups in the western hemisphere is still an ideal to which Africa Latin America and the Caribbean can aspire This book will be of interest to academics in the field of African history African Studies Caribbean and Latin American studies cultural anthropology and comparative sociology Ordered Estates Hartnack, Andrew M.C., 2016-07-31 There is a growing body of work on white farmers in Zimbabwe Yet the role played by white women so called farmers wives on commercial farms has been almost completely ignored if not forgotten For all the public role and overt power ascribed to white male farmers their wives played an equally important although often more subtle role in power and labour relations on white commercial farms This soft power took the form of maternalistic welfare initiatives such as clinics schools orphan programmes and women s clubs mostly overseen by a farmer s wife Before and after Zimbabwe s 1980 independence these played an important role in attracting and keeping farm labourers and governing their behaviour After independence they also became crucial to the way white farmers justified their continued ownership of most of Zimbabwe s prime farmland This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the role that farm welfare initiatives played in Zimbabwe's agrarian history. Having assessed what implications such endeavours had for the position and well-being of farmworkers before the onset of fast-track land reform in the year 2000, Hartnack examines in vivid ethnographic detail the impact that the farm seizures had on the lives of farmworkers and the welfare programmes which had previously attempted to improve their lot. Reclaiming Africa Sam Moyo, Praveen Jha, Paris Yeros, 2018-09-03 This book presents the findings of research conducted by scholars and activists associated with the Agrarian South Network based mainly in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The research articulates a Southern perspective on the new scramble for Africa with a view to strengthen tri-continental solidarities. The book explains the significance of the new scramble in terms of the economic structures inherited from the late nineteenth-century scramble and the subsequent post-independence period. The renewed competition for Africa's land and natural resources and the resumption of economic growth at the turn of the millennium have revived concerns regarding the continent's position in the world economy and the prospects for its development in the twenty-first century. In this regard, the book addresses two related issues: the character of the expansion of Southern competitors in relation to the more established Western strategies and the impact of the renewed influx of investments in land, minerals and associated infrastructure. The findings are presented with empirical rigor and conceptual clarity to enable the reader to grasp what really is at stake in the twenty-first century: an epic struggle to reclaim Africa from the monopolies that exercise control over its land, minerals, labour and destiny.
