

Memorandum

Dated: 14 January 2023

To: Sales & Marketing Group

From: Praveenkumar Revankar, Product Engineering

Subject: Delay in release timelines of Feature A and Feature B.

Purpose:

The purpose of this document is to notify the cross-functional group about sudden changes in release timelines of Feature A and Feature B and to reinform the group to reprioritize certain tasks for Sales and Marketing for the release.

Background/Context:

We have been working together on our key USP features 'Feature A' and 'Feature B' for targeting their release this quarter. Due to unforeseen circumstances, there is a change in the release timelines and the new timeline will be shared shortly in Scrum of Scrum meeting where a representative from Sales has been invited.

Action:

Even though it looks like a major setback and current activities w.r.t. The release can be paused, there are certain actions that have to be performed in this quarter. The same has been conveyed in Jira, marking the work items with labels "Q1_Paused" and "Q1_Must." Please reprioritize your internal activities based on the labels in Jira and ensure a final plan reflected in Jira on or before 30 January 2023.

Conclusion:

We might be delayed with the release but we are not affecting the business. The necessary strategy is defined and put in place to ensure customers can solve their problems using our support until Feature A and Feature B release.

Thanks,
Praveenkumar Revankar

Castlereagh John Bew,2012 Hardly is a figure more maligned in British history than Robert Stewart Viscount Castlereagh One of the central figures of the Napoleonic Era and the man primarily responsible for fashioning Britain's strategy at the Congress of Vienna Castlereagh was widely respected by the great powers of Europe and America yet despised by his countrymen and those he sought to serve A shrewd diplomat he is credited with being one of the first great practitioners of Realpolitik and its cold eyed and calculating view of the relations between nations Over the course of his career he crushed an Irish rebellion and abolished the Irish parliament imprisoned his former friends created the largest British army in history and redrew the map of Europe Today Castlereagh is largely forgotten except as a tyrant who denied the freedoms won by the French and American revolutions John Bew's fascinating biography restores the statesman to his place in history offering a nuanced picture of a shy often inarticulate figure whose mind captured the complexity of the European Enlightenment unlike any other Bew tells a gripping story beginning with the Year of the French when Napoleon sent troops in support of a revolution in Ireland and traces Castlereagh's evolution across the Napoleonic Wars the diplomatic power struggles of 1814-15 and eventually the mental breakdown that ended his life Skillfully balancing the dimensions of Castlereagh's intellectual life with his Irish heritage Bew's definitive work brings Castlereagh alive in all his complexity variety and depth
