

"The Sun Sets in Molten Gold" by Li Ching Chao

*The sun sets in molten gold.
The evening clouds form a jade disk,
Where is he?*

*Dense white mist envelops the willows.
A sad flute plays "Falling Plum Blossoms."
How many Spring days are left now?
This Feast of Lanterns should be joyful.
The weather is calm and lovely.
But who can tell if it
Will be followed by wind and rain?*

Cantos and Strophes in Biblical Hebrew Poetry III P. van der Lugt, 2013-10-10 This volume deals with the rhetoric the formal and thematic framework of Psalms 90 150 the Fourth and Fifth Book of the Psalter It is the conclusion of the Psalms Project started with Psalms 1 41 OTS 53 2006 and continued with Psalms 42 89 OTS 57 2010 Formal and thematic devices demonstrate that the psalms are composed of a consistent pattern of cantos stanzas and strophes The formal devices especially include quantitative balance on the level of the cantos in terms of verselines verbal repetitions and on the level of the strophes transition markers The quantitative approach to a psalm in terms of verselines cola and or words in most cases clearly discloses a focal message This massive study is rounded off by an updated introduction to the canto design of biblical poetry including the book of Job Lamentations the Songs of Songs Deutero Isaiah and other major poems of the Hebrew Bible

Quaestiones Propertianae Hans-Christian Günther, 2018-07-17 This comprehensive study deals with the major critical problems of one of the most difficult authors of Latin literature It examines in a systematic fashion the two major factors which have been assumed to be responsible for the state of the transmitted text of Propertius dislocation and interpolation It also covers a large number of notorious cases of verbal corruption and discusses problems of the manuscript tradition on the basis of the most recent research Beyond questions of textual criticism and history in the narrow sense the book provides also important exegetical remarks on many Propertian passages and deals in a separate chapter with problems of book and poem structure

Between the Lines: Yang Lian's Poetry through Translation Cosima Bruno, 2012-06-08 In Between the Lines Cosima Bruno illustrates how the study of translation can enhance our experience of reading poetry By inquiring into the mutual dependence of the source text and its translation the study offers both theoretical insights and methodological tools that bring in depth stylistic analysis to bear on the translations as against the originals Through such a process of discovery Cosima Bruno elaborates a textual exegesis of the work by Yang Lian one of the most translated and critically acclaimed contemporary Chinese poets This book thus reconciles the theory practice divide in translation studies as well as helps to dismantle the lingering Eurocentrism still present in the discipline
