30 Days Of Blogging For Churches:

Creating Church Online Tim Hutchings, 2017-04-21 Online churches are internet based Christian communities pursuing worship discussion friendship support proselytization and other key religious goals through computer mediated communication Hundreds of thousands of people are now involved with online congregations generating new kinds of ritual leadership and community and new networks of global influence Creating Church Online constructs a rich ethnographic account of the diverse cultures of online churches from virtual worlds to video streams This book also outlines the history of online churchgoing from its origins in the 1980s to the present day and traces the major themes of academic and Christian debate around this topic Applying some of the leading current theories in the study of religion media and culture to this data Tim Hutchings proposes a new model of religious design in contexts of mediatization and draws attention to digital networks transformative third spaces and terrains of existential vulnerability Creating Church Online advances our understanding of the significance and impact of digital media in the religious and social lives of its users in search of new theoretical frameworks for digital religion

The Blogging Church Brian Bailey, 2011-01-07 The Blogging Church offers church leaders a field manual for using the social phenomenon of blogs to connect people and build communities in a whole new way Inside you will find the why what and how of blogging in the local church Filled with illustrative examples and practical advice the authors answer key questions learned on the frontlines of ministry Is blogging a tool or a toy What problems will blogging solve How does it benefit ministry How do I build a great blog and Who am I blogging for The Blogging Church is a handbook that will inspire and equip you to join the conversation The book includes contributions from five of the most popular bloggers in the world Robert Scoble Dave Winer Kathy Sierra Guy Kawasaki and Merlin Mann as well as interviews with blogging pastors such as Mark Driscoll Craig Groeschel Tony Morgan Perry Noble Greg Surratt Mark Batterson and many more

Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Mark Rathel, 2014-07-24 In Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Rathel examines the major ecclesiological proposals of the emerging church movement Though many theologians argue that the emerging church movement emphasizes epistemology Rathel contends that its primary concern is ecclesiology Emerging church leaders offer a number of important ecclesiological proposals including restructuring traditional church leadership models to accommodate the rise of postmodernity changing the mission of the church so that the church may strike a more missional tone in contemporary culture removing the categories of in or out within the church body and adopting the multi site church model In assessing these proposals Rathel draws upon historic Baptist convictions about the nature of the church using Baptists ecclesiological distinctives and long history of ecclesiological thought as a helpful reference point This book will not only serve as a guide for those who wish to learn of emerging church ecclesiology it will also be an aid to Baptists who wish to evaluate recent trends in ecclesiology in light of their denominational distinctives
