Fung, Can Wang, 2018-12-11 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post workshop proceedings at PAKDD Workshops 2018 held in conjunction with the 22nd Pacific Asia Conference on Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining PAKDD 2018 in Melbourne Australia in June 2018 The 32 revised papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 46 submissions The workshops affiliated with PAKDD 2018 include Workshop on Big Data Analytics for Social Computing BDASC Australasian Workshop on Machine Learning for Cyber security ML4Cyber Workshop on Biologically inspired Techniques for Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining BDM Pacific Asia Workshop on Intelligence and Security Informatics PAISI and Workshop on Data Mining for Energy Modeling and Optimization DaMEMO Green Growth, Smart Growth Ralf Fücks, 2015-06-15 We find ourselves at a crossroads between environmental disaster and a new industrial revolution a shift from the ruthless exploitation of nature toward cooperation with it Decoupling economic growth from environmental consumption is an ambitious goal but also an achievable one Green Growth Smart Growth outlines a way forward in this great transformation and does so in the conviction that the dangers posed by climate change can be overcome through a new approach to economics innovation and proactive policymaking Jellicoe's War Nicholas Jellicoe, 2024-12-31 In February 1917 German U boats launched a savage unrestricted campaign against both Allied and neutral shipping At its peak in April 860 000 tons of Allied merchant shipping was sunk Britain's supremacy at sea was being severely challenged and with it the chances of victory in the wider war Taking up the challenge was Britain's new First Sea Lord Sir John Jellicoe until the previous December C in C of the Grand Fleet famously described by Churchill as the only man who could have lost the war in an afternoon The battle he now faced was equally critical although the timeline of defeat was a matter of days rather than hours Britain's food stocks were dangerously low with wheat reserves down to six weeks and sugar to only two while wide scale shortages were crippling the industrial economy Jellicoe outlined the gravity of the situation with total candor to Rear Admiral William Sims USN sent over before America officially declared war by Franklin Roosevelt the Assistant Secretary of the Navy The two men already knew each other from service together in China during the Boxer Rebellion so Jellicoe's plea for urgent American assistance was taken seriously by Sims After the USA joined the war in April 1917 together they lobbied Washington for aid addressing their needs directly to two reluctant Anglophobes at the head of the USN Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels and Chief of Naval Operations William Benson Clearly a radical new approach to anti submarine warfare was called for and Convoy was the leading contender There were many objections to protecting shipping in this way some ideological but most practical a workable system for example effectively required state control of both shipping and distribution networks something inconceivable in normal circumstances However Convoy had powerful advocates including the Prime Minister Lloyd George who later claimed he had personally forced its adoption on a reluctant Admiralty This self serving political myth cast Jellicoe as an opponent of Convoy nothing could be further from the truth As both Jellicoe and Sims understood the key requirement was a rapid increase in the number of destroyers for escort duties America provided them the first arriving in Queenstown Ireland on 4 May and by June 46 were operating in European waters This was the first step in an Anglo American campaign that gradually brought the U boat threat under control and led to its ultimate defeat This book takes a fresh look at the undersea war as a whole and all the complex factors bearing on the campaign only one of which was convoy Its analysis is original and its conclusions thought provoking an important contribution to the naval history of the Great War
