33 Artists In 3 Acts:

33 Artists in 3 Acts Sarah Thornton, 2015-09-24 This compelling narrative goes behind the scenes with important living artists around the world to humanize and demystify contemporary art When people think of contemporary art they often think of the market eye popping prices for splashy works But Sarah Thornton argues that for artists the key marker of success isn't money but credibility 33 Artists in 3 Acts explores the strategies deployed by artists from international superstars to unheralded teachers Thornton challenges the romantic vision of the lone artist showing how these driven inventive personalities interact with professional and intellectual networks of supporters collaborators and assistants Drawing from interviews with 130 artists on four continents Thornton crafts a brilliantly structured narrative that reveals the dynamics of creative lives

61 Artists in 3 Acts Sarah Thornton, 2014-10-02 Is being an artist a radical form of entrepreneurship or a vocational calling like the priesthood Is it an extension of philosophy or an offshoot of entertainment In three richly interlinked but distinct acts Politics Kinship and Craft Sarah Thornton compares and contrasts answers to the simple but profound question what is an artist 33 Artists in 3 Acts draws on hundreds of personal encounters with the world's most important artists to ask what it means to be making artworks in different parts of the world today With Thornton as expert guide and trusted insider we have unprecedented access to the lives of the artists from late night Skype chats with Ai Weiwei to taxi rides with Maurizio Cattelan on the way to and from the show that announces his death We join Thornton as she rummages through artists studios homes and solo shows inquiring about everything from their bank accounts to their bedrooms The result is a series of cinematic experiences which juxtapose artists in thought provoking ways and build up narratives that end with epiphanies 33 Artists in 3 Acts is a generational touchstone a powerful triptych and gripping anti monograph about truth integrity credibility and recognition Essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art this masterful act of storytelling will also delight any reader seeking to understand creative lives

Screening the Art World Temenuga Trifonova, 2025-10-01 Screening the Art World explores the ways in which artists and the art world more generally have been represented in cinema Contributors address a rarely explored subject art in cinema rather than the art of cinema by considering films across genres historical periods and national cinemas in order to reflect on cinema's fluctuating imaginary of art and the art world The book examines the intersection of art history with history in cinema cinema's simultaneous affirmation and denigration of the idea of art as truth the dominant often contradictory ways in which artists have been represented on screen and cinematic representations of the art world's tenuous position between commercial good and cultural capital chapters in Part 1 set new agendas by reflecting on the field's history presenting theoretical innovations and suggesting future directions for research Part 2 explores aesthetic issues and challenges in the creation experience and interpretation of art and music Part 3 focuses on the material environments and social settings where people engage with art and music In Part 4 the contributors examine controversies about music and contestation over artistic matters whether in the public sphere in the American judicial system or in an emerging academic discipline The editor's introduction and Ron Eyerman's afterword place the chapters in context and reflect on their collective contribution to meaning centered sociology

The Routledge Companion to Art in the Public Realm Cameron Cartiere, Leon Tan, 2020-10-19 This multidisciplinary companion offers a comprehensive overview of the global arena of public art It is organised around four distinct topics activation social justice memory and identity and ecology with a final chapter mapping significant works of public and social practice art around the world between 2008 and 2018 The thematic approach brings into view similarities and differences in the recent globalisation of public art practices while the multidisciplinary emphasis allows for a consideration of the complex outcomes and consequences of such practices as they engage different disciplines and communities and affect a diversity of audiences beyond the existing art world The book will highlight an international selection of artist projects that illustrate the themes This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art art history urban studies and museum studies

Biennials, Triennials, and Documenta Anthony Gardner, Charles Green, 2016-05-23 This innovative new history examines in depth how the growing popularity of large scale international survey exhibitions or biennials has influenced global contemporary art since the 1950s Provides a comprehensive global history of biennialization from the rise of the European star curator in the 1970s to the emergence of mega exhibitions in Asia in the 1990s Introduces a global array of case studies to illustrate the trajectory of biennials and their growing influence on artistic expression from the Biennale de la Méditerranée in Alexandria Egypt in 1955 the second Havana Biennial of 1986 New York's Whitney Biennial in 1993 and the 2002 Documenta 11 in Kassel to the Gwangju Biennale of 2014 Explores the evolving curatorial approaches to biennials including analysis of the roles of sponsors philanthropists and biennial directors and their re-shaping of the contemporary art scene Uses the history of biennials as a means of illustrating and inciting further discussions of globalization in contemporary art

The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W. Barbeau, 2016-03-08 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment
