All The Names:

All the Names of the Lord Valentina Izmirlieva, 2008-09-15 Christians face a conundrum when it comes to naming God for if God is unnamable as theologians maintain he can also be called by every name His proper name is thus an open ended all encompassing list a mystery the Church embraces in its rhetoric but which many Christians have found difficult to accept To explore this conflict Valentina Izmirlieva examines two lists of God's names one from The Divine Names the classic treatise by Pseudo Dionysius and the other from The 72 Names of the Lord an amulet whose history binds together Kabbalah and Christianity Jews and Slavs Palestine Provence and the Balkans This unexpected juxtaposition of a theological treatise and a magical amulet allows Izmirlieva to reveal lists rhetorical potential to create order and to function as both tools of knowledge and of power Despite the two different visions of order represented by each list Izmirlieva finds that their uses in Christian practice point to a complementary relationship between the existential need for God's protection and the metaphysical desire to submit to his infinite majesty a compelling claim sure to provoke discussion among scholars in many fields *A Medical Vocabulary, or Explanation of all names, synonymes, terms and phrases used in medicine, surgery, and the relative branches of medical science ... Rippee, 2018-03-02 Christology and Pneumatology have long been major preoccupations for theologians and rightly so but the work of God the Father has been surprisingly neglected Through a biblical and exegetical study of the Father s person and work Paterology this book argues that among the persons of the Trinity the Father is the initiator of all divine activity Furthermore it is in the context of a loving eternal relationship with the Son and Spirit that the Father has planned and purposed all things creating through the Son and by the Spirit promising and accomplishing redemption through the sending of the Son and the Spirit and perfecting salvation by bringing about a new heavens and new earth through his Son and Spirit The only proper response is a Trinitarian shaped life of worship that worships our Triune God
