Curriculum Theory, Curriculum Theorising, and the Theoriser ,2020-12-29 Curriculum studies is at the core of the educational endeavour and informs what happens in every educational institution As a result of its criticality or primacy every educational practitioner appears to claim expertise in curriculum matters and what direction the field should take In Africa the curriculum practitioner has been given little or no space to theorise and orient the future of the field in Africa

Instead European and American curriculum theorists have been allowed to exert a marked influence on the nature and direction of African theoretical and philosophical underpinnings This situation raises fundamental questions about the future of education in Africa and this volume explores and answers these questions relating to curriculum theory theorising and the theoriser by breaking traditions and experimenting on alternative approaches and pathways Contributors are Aruna Ankiah Gangadeen Lynn Biggs Eunice Champion Taryn Isaacs De Vega Kehdinga George Fomunyam Nadaraj Govender Angela James Simon Bheki Khoza Noma China Kubashe Nehemiah Latolla Jacqui L ck Dumisa Celumusa Mabuza Simeon Maile Suriamurthe Maistry Makhulu A Makumane Zvisinei Moyo Cedric Bheki Mpungose Pascal Nadal Blanche Ntombizodwa Ndlovu Christopher Ndlovu Emily Mangwaya Ndlovu Nellie Ngcongco James Deirdre Pratt Mukhtar Raban Nolundi Radana Makhosazana Edith Shoba Mahlapahlapana Themane Molaodi Tshelane and Denise Zinn

Rhodes and Rhodesia Arthur Keppel-Jones, 1983 This volume deals with the conquest and colonization of Zimbabwe and the establishment of Southern Rhodesia from the beginnings of British involvement in Bechuanaland to the death of Cecil Rhodes Its emphasis is on the white invaders and its chief concern is white individuals their motives actions and influence on events The British South Africa Company and the irregularity of its financial and political operations are dealt with in detail Keppel Jones also discusses the development in the midst of the indigenous population of an alien white society and state from their crude beginnings to their emergence in a form still recognizable today The reader is led to conclude that by 1902 Southern Rhodesia was already set on the road that would lead to the upheavals of the second half of the twentieth century The author examines the racial consciousness and prejudice of the white society and addresses an important question why did the imperial government grant a royal charter to the BSA Company The facts show conclusively that the imperial government had little interest in Central Africa or care for its fate except when foreign competition appeared Keppel Jones also reveals the important role played by black troops employed by the Company in suppressing the rebellions of 1896 7 For opposite reasons neither blacks nor whites have been willing to recognize this on the other hand the habit of the men on the spot of making and carrying out decisions without regard to their superiors in London is a commonplace of imperial history One of the main themes of the book is the tension between the unofficial imperialists straining at the leash and the Colonial Office struggling to hold them back Rhodes and Rhodesia is based on extensive use of public records mainly in the Public Record Office London and the National Archives of Zimbabwe of collections of private papers and of contemporary published works Arthur Keppel Jones is professor emeritus of history at Queen s University
