

GRADE 12 GRADUATION CEREMONY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND CLOSING SPEECH

Before we close this day's ceremony, I'd like to take this last opportunity to say, "On behalf of BSAI Faculty and Staff, congratulations both graduates and the family and friends who have helped us arrive at this moment.

Our graduates, your outstanding achievements have been clearly seen and they deserve pride. Though that's not merely the end, that after receiving your diplomas, medals and certificates, followed by hanging them on the wall for people to admire. Today is more than that. Today is not the highlight of great applause but it's accentuating the individuality of how far you set your limits.

Just think of what brought us here. All the trials and misfortunes, too great to recall right? All nights of studying, the grades, classroom experiences, the stress, your BAON, insights and learning come together here. Another gate is about to open and as you leave the gates of your Alma Mater, kindly embody the ideals that we imparted and possess the visions of holding the lights of your future.

I would love to acknowledge the people who made this event possible.

To the board of trustees with Doc. Zamora and our directress, Ma'am Lita, we acknowledge your support and insights in every occasion and situations we take part and handle.

To my coordinators, you are my wings and body, I appreciate your plans, suggestions and criticisms in making everything more beautiful and organized. Indeed, we fly together.

To the faculty members of BSAI, your willingness and unforced hard work are not being ignored but rather, praised, noted and appreciated. I acknowledge every help you've given.

To our dearest BSAeans, the backbone of our school, we feel honored and humbled with your continuous trust in our service and support. We will continue to grow and learn to provide you more quality teaching and accommodation.

To our parents, I congratulate you and thank you for choosing us every year. Please continue to support us and we are always ready and eager in serving you.
