A Guide to Working the 12 Steps

To a newcomer, a 12-step program can be overwhelming. You may look at dramatic concepts such as making amends or reaching a spiritual awakening and wonder what that means in practical terms. Your first source for the substantive content of each step should be your sponsor. Do not work the steps without input from them and possibly from the rest of your group as well. The literature specific to your group is also valuable resources in this process.

The process is called "working the steps" for a reason. Each step requires exhaustive mental work alongside practical steps. The 12-steps are designed to help us better understand where our addiction stems from and what we can do about it. This requires a great deal of introspection and soul searching. It is for this reason that focused questions are a crucial element in the equation. If you work the steps, listen to your sponsor, and take your recovery seriously, your life will improve immeasurably. Answering these questions as you reach the appropriate step, will help you along that process.

This is not meant as a comprehensive source of questions relevant to your work on the 12 steps. Instead, we advise that you show the questions to your sponsor and decide together if they are appropriate for you. Answering these questions does not replace the work you do with your sponsor, attending meetings, using official literature, and daily prayer and meditation. Instead, it is meant to complement the traditional elements and assist you as you improve your life by working the steps.

Step 1

Focus of step 1: Step one is built around the realization that our addiction has defeated us. That our attempts to function have failed and that addiction is the cause of this outcome. Therefore, our questions at this stage will focus on how we were defeated, by what our lives look like as a result. These questions will seem dour, and they are. But keep in mind that we are not surveying the wreckage in our lives to feel self-pity. We are preparing to rebuild.

Step 1 Questions

How did you discover your addiction? Why did you enjoy it initially?

How did you feel when you had not engaged in an addictive behavior for a while?

List all the types of behavior of which your addiction consisted. Which did you do most often and why?

Did your addiction damage your most important personal relations? How did it do so?

Does your addiction isolate you from other people? Is it an internal feeling of isolation, or have the people in your life noticed it too?

Were there any feelings that you hid about engagement in addictive behavior? Were you trying to mask them? How did your behavior alter or influence those feelings?

What is the most regrettable outcome of your addiction?

How did your addiction affect your finances? How did you rationalize your spending? Did you have to hide the damage from other people?
