Encyclopedia of Deception Timothy R. Levine,2014-02-20 The Encyclopedia of Deception examines lying from multiple perspectives drawn from the disciplines of social psychology sociology history business political science cultural anthropology moral philosophy theology law family studies evolutionary biology philosophy and more From the little white lie to lying on a resume to the grandiose lies of presidents this two volume reference explores the phenomenon of lying in a multidisciplinary context to elucidate this common aspect of our daily lives Not only a cultural phenomenon historically lying is a frequent occurrence in our everyday lives Research shows that we are likely to lie or intentionally deceive others several times a day or in one out of every four conversations that lasts more than 10 minutes Key Features More than 360 authored by key figures in the field are organized A to Z in two volumes which are available in both print and electronic formats Entries are written in a clear and accessible style that invites readers to explore and reflect on the use of lying and self deception Each article concludes with cross references to related entries and further readings This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social and behavioral science programs who seek to better understand the historical role of lying and how it is employed in modern society

Pragmatics of Discourse Klaus P. Schneider,Anne Barron,2014-06-18 Discourse is language as it occurs in any form or context beyond the speech act It may be written or spoken monological or dialogical but there is always a communicative aim or purpose The present volume provides systematic orientation in the vast field of studying discourse from a pragmatic perspective It first gives an overview of a range of approaches developed for the analysis of discourse including among others conversation analysis systemic functional analysis genre analysis critical discourse analysis corpus driven approaches and multimodal analysis The focus is furthermore on functional units in discourse such as discourse markers moves speech act sequences discourse phases and silence The final section of the volume examines discourse types and domains providing a taxonomy of discourse types and focusing on a range of discourse domains e g classroom discourse medical discourse legal discourse electronic discourse Each article surveys the current state of the art of the respective topic area while also presenting new research findings How the Police Generate False Confessions James L. Trainum,2016-07-15 Despite the rising number of confirmed false confession cases most people have a hard time grasping why someone would confess to a crime they did not commit or even why a guilty person would admit to something that could put them in jail for life How the Police Generate False Confessions takes you inside the interrogation room exposing the tactics that law enforcement uses to make confessions happen James L Trainum reveals how innocent people can become suspects and then confessed criminals even when they have not committed a crime Using real stories he looks at the inherent coerciveness of the interrogation process and why so many false confessions contain so many of the details that only the true perpetrator would know More disturbingly the book examines how these same processes corrupt witness and victim statements create lying informants and cooperators and induce innocent people to plead guilty Trainum also offers recommendations for change in the U S by looking at how other countries are changing the process to prevent such miscarriages of justice The reasons that people falsely confess can be complex and varied throughout How the Police Generate False Confessions Trainum encourages readers to critically evaluate confessions on their own by gaining a better understanding of the interrogation process The Dynamics of Interactional Humor Villy Tsakona,Jan Chovanec,2018-01-05 This book deals with the construction of diverse forms of humor in everyday oral written and mediatized interactions It sheds light on the differences and most importantly the similarities in the production of interactional humor in face to face and various technology mediated forms of communication including scripted and non scripted situations The chapters analyze humor related issues in such genres as spontaneous conversations broadcast dialogues storytelling media blogs bilingual conversations stand up comedy TV documentaries drama series family sitcoms Facebook posts and internet memes The individual authors trace how speakers collaboratively circulate reconstruct and re frame either personal or public accounts of reality aiming among other things to produce and or reproduce humor Rather than being finished products with a single interpretation humorous texts are thus approached as dynamic communicative events that give rise to diverse interpretations and meanings The book draws on a variety of up to date approaches and methodologies and will appeal to scholars in discourse analysis conversation analysis interactional sociolinguistics pragmatics ethnography of communication and social semiotics
