out to those properties of totalitarian society which appear to be beyond the grasp of specific disciplines Furthermore this functional approach allows to extend the analysis of communicative practices commonly associated with fascist Italy Nazi Germany and Soviet Union to other locations France United States of America and Great Britain in the 1930s or historical contexts post Soviet developments in Russia or Kyrgyzstan This in turn leads to the revaluation of the very term totalitarian no longer an ideological label or a stock attribute of historical narration it gets a life of its own defining a specific constellation of hierarchies codes and networks within a given society Anti-Muslim Prejudice Maleiha Malik, 2013-09-13

The walk without limbs: Searching for indigenous health knowledge in a rural context in South Africa Gubela Mji, Melanie Alperstein, Nondwe Bongokazi Mlenzana, Karen Galloway, Chioma Ohajunwa, Lieketseng Ned, Ntombekhaya Tshabalala, 2019-12-12 In a country as diverse as South Africa sickness and health often mean different things to different people so much so that the different health definitions and health belief models in the country seem to have a profound influence on the health seeking behaviour of the people who are part of our vibrant multicultural society This book is concerned with the integration of indigenous health knowledge IHK into the current Western orientated Primary Health Care PHC model The first section of the book highlights the challenges facing the training of health professionals using a curriculum that is not drawing its knowledge base from the indigenous context and the people of that context Such professionals will later recognise that they are walking without limbs in matters pertaining to health The area that was chosen for conducting the research was KwaBomvana in Xhosa Elliotdale Eastern Cape province South Africa The people who reside there are called AmaBomvana The area where the Bomvana peoples reside is served by Madwaleni Hospital and eight surrounding clinics Qualitative ethnographic feminist methods of data collection supported the research done for

Section 1 of the book Section 2 comprises the translation and implementation of PhD study outcomes and had contributions from various researchers In the critical research findings of the PhD study older Xhosa women identify the inclusion of social determinants of health as vital to the health problems they managed within their homes For them each disease is linked to a social determinant of health and the management of health problems includes the management of social determinants of health For them it is about the health of the home and not just about the management of disease They believe that healthy homes make healthy villages and that the prevention of the development of disease is related to the strengthening of the home Health and illness should be seen within both physical and spiritual contexts without health there can be no progress in the home When defining health the older Xhosa women add three critical components to the WHO health definition namely food security healthy children and families and peace and security in their villages Prof Mji further proposes that these three elements should be included in the next revision of the WHO health definition because they are not only important for the Bomvana people where the research was conducted but also for the rest of humanity In light of the promise of National Health Insurance and the revitalisation of PHC this book proposes that these two major national health policies should take cognisance of the IHK utilised by the older Xhosa women In addition to what this research implies these policies should also take note of all IHK from the indigenous peoples of South Africa Africa and the rest of the world and that there should be a clear plan as to how the knowledge can be supported within a health care systems approach

Understanding The Local Media Aldridge, Meryl, 2007-04-01 How will local media deal with the challenge of the Internet How important is regional news to the nations of the UK What does the future hold for newspapers regional television and local radio news Most adults in the UK read a local newspaper regional news bulletins are among the most watched on television and local radio has a loyal following This is hardly surprising as for most people the everyday activities of life take place within familiar local territory Even though the majority of political and economic decisions affecting daily life are taken far away and are shaped by global processes their impact is experienced locally Local media are vital if there is to be an effective arena for informed debate about these issues But despite being both popular and politically important local media are often overlooked on media related courses and in discussions of the role of the media in contemporary society Understanding the Local Media addresses this gap by explaining how regional newspapers and broadcast news are owned regulated and organized how these factors produce the outputs we see and hear what we know of audiences attitude to them and discusses local media as places of work Meryl Aldridge brings issues alive by the extensive use of real examples and offers a fascinating insight into this media sector for students and teachers on academic and professional media courses It also provides stimulating reading for anyone interested in UK media today

Criminal Resistance? Temitope B. Oriola, 2016-05-13 Crude oil extraction in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria generates 96% of all foreign earnings and 85% of state revenues making it crucial to the survival of the Nigerian state Several generations of state neglect corruption and mismanagement have ensured that the Delta region is one of the most socio economically and politically deprived in the country By the late 1990s there was a frightening proliferation of armed gangs and insurgent groups Illegal oil bunkering pipeline vandalism disruption of oil production activities riots and demonstrations intensified and in 2003 insurgents began kidnapping oil workers at a frenetic pace In late 2005 an uber insurgent movement organization was formed in Nigeria Christened the Movement for the Emancipation of the Niger Delta MEND it operates as an amorphous multifaceted amalgam of insurgent groups with an unprecedented clinical precision in execution of intents By focussing on kidnappings that are putatively connected to the struggle for emancipating the Niger Delta Oriola makes the case for analysing MEND as a social movement organization rather than a terrorist or criminal gang by showing how political processes shape kidnappings in the Delta The use of violent repertoires of contention has not garnered sufficient attention in the social movement literature despite the fact that that around the world many similar groups are adopting violent tactics without necessarily eschewing non violent techniques Based on multi actor research including interviews and focus group discussions with community members military authorities 42 ex insurgents directly involved in illegal oil bunkering and kidnapping and official email statements from Jomo Gbomo the spokesperson of MEND this book will be of interest to sociologists political scientists and peace and security studies scholars

Language and Mediated Masculinities Robert Lawson, 2023 From television shows to the manosphere and from alt right communities to fatherhood forums debates about masculinity have come to dominate the media landscape What does it mean to be a man in contemporary society How is masculinity constituted in different media spaces This growing cultural tension around masculinities has been discussed and analyzed both for general audiences and in burgeoning academic scholarship What has been typically overlooked however is the role that language plays in these mediated performances of masculinity In Language and Mediated Masculinities Robert Lawson draws on data from newspapers social media sites television programs and online forums to explore language and masculinities across a range of media contexts The book offers a critical evaluation of the intersection between language masculinities and identities in contemporary society and addresses three key questions How are masculinities constructed in both public and private spheres through linguistic and discursive strategies How does language about masculinity and men affect and recreate gender ideologies in different social political and historical contexts What might the language of men tell us about the state of contemporary gender relations in the twenty first century Lawson furthers our understanding of how language is implicated in re creating gender ideologies and how it shapes contemporary gender relations Against a cultural backdrop of rising neoliberalism ethnic nationalism online radicalization networked misogyny and fractious gender relations this book is an important contribution to charting how language is used to monitor evaluate and police masculinities in online and offline spaces

Heritage, Communities and Archaeology Laurajane Smith, Emma Waterton, 2013-11-20 This book traces the development of community archaeology identifying both its advantages and disadvantages by describing how and why tensions have arisen between archaeological and community understandings of the past The focus of this book is the conceptual disjunction between heritage and data and the problems this poses for both archaeologists and communities in communicating and engaging with each other In order to explain the extent of the miscommunication that can occur the authors examine the ways in which a range of community groups including communities of expertise define and negotiate memory and identity Importantly they explore the ways in which these expressions are used or are taken up in struggles over cultural recognition and ultimately the practical ethical political and theoretical implications this has for archaeologists engaging in community work Finally they argue that there are very real advantages for archaeological research theory and practice to be gained from engaging with communities

Analysing Fascist Discourse Ruth Wodak, John E. Richardson, 2013-03-05 This book focuses primarily on continuities and discontinuities of fascist politics as manifested in discourses of post war European countries Many traumatic pasts in Europe are linked to the experience of fascist and national socialist regimes in the 20th century and to related colonial and imperialist expansionist politics And yet we are again confronted with the emergence rise and success of extreme right wing political movements across Europe and beyond which frequently draw on fascist and national socialist ideologies themes idioms arguments and lexical items Post war taboos have forced such parties politicians and their electorate to frequently code their exclusionary fascist rhetoric This collection shows that an interdisciplinary critical approach to fascist text and talk subsuming all instances of meaning making oral visual written sounds etc and genres such as policy documents speeches school books media reporting posters songs logos and other symbols is necessary to deconstruct exclusionary meanings and to confront their inegalitarian political projects

Policy, Media, and the Shaping of Spain-Morocco Relations Farah Ali, 2024-07-20 This book uses sociolinguistic approaches to explore how media discourse on undocumented migration informs Morocco Spain political relations Historically much of the contact between these two nations has been through conquest first through the Umayyad Caliphate taking control of the Iberian Peninsula then called Hispania in the 8th century and then through Spain's occupation of northern Morocco in the 20th century Though these historical roots have undoubtedly played a role in shaping present day Morocco Spain relations migration has also become another critical element as the majority of legally authorized migration to Spain comes from Morocco Additionally Morocco serves as a sojourn for much of the undocumented migration to the Spanish autonomous cities of Ceuta and Melilla both of which are enclaves in Morocco and common entry points for North African and Sub Saharan African immigrants Migration to Ceuta and Melilla has therefore become a flashpoint for anti immigration attitudes that are frequently perpetuated in political and media discourse The author uses these cities as a case study situating them within the wider context of both immigration related policies and news articles in order to examine how migration is represented in Spain and Morocco The book connects media discourse with policy discourse and addresses how these mediums 1 co construct anti immigration and xenophobic ideologies and 2 shape and are shaped by the somewhat strained relations between Spain and Morocco This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Discourse Analysis Sociolinguistics Migration Studies and Migration Policy Media Studies and Political Communication Femicide, Gender and Violence Daniela Bandelli, 2017-03-21 This book questions gendered readings of violence by analyzing how this paradigm has become normalized in Italy since the feminist term femminicidio or femicide entered the mainstream media during the 2013 general election It also sheds light on discourses of contestation on the part of family activists men's rights campaigners and divorced fathers groups Two counter discourses emerge The first is what the author terms an ideology narrative for which discourses built around the conceptual category of gender normalize simplistic representations of relationships between men and women The second is a female violence discourse which sheds light on under represented aggressor victim relations and modifies dominant representations of femininity and masculinity The author argues that integrating these two discourses into public debates helps to reappropriate the complexity and biological dimensions of violent relationships between men and women often overshadowed by gender feminist perspectives In this way she concludes we can address neglected social issues that contribute to violence beyond gender This thought provoking book will appeal to students and scholars of sociology critical discourse studies and gender Conference Proceeding Juan Carlos Suárez Villegas, Rosario Lacalle Zalduendo, 2014-06-09
