represented in the texts problematize the clear distinction between speech and writing or between natural articulation and its technological reproduction Audio Book suggests that literary writing is metaphorically conceivable as a transmitting and storing technology as an audiobook of sorts capable of recording upon writing and reproducing upon reading auditory information The sound technologies proper have also bearing on the narrative structure metaphors and style of each fictional work studied in Audio Book In addition themes such as identity genre the nature of literary representation and the absence presence problem are brought to the fore on account of the technologies depicted

The Man Who Refused Heaven Paramhansa Yogananda, Swami Kriyananda, 2017-06-15 Joy Is Fundamental to Who We Are Paramhansa Yogananda translated the classic definition of God given by Swami Shankarananda Sat chid ananda as Ever existing ever conscious ever new joy Yogananda added the concept of new to the ancient definition Yogananda explained that God became His creation which means that all of life exists is conscious and has the quality of joy innately within it This is why human beings universally seek happiness It is our nature to be happy and the search for happiness motivates everyone A master is one who has united his consciousness with Satchidananda and so you see in the masters profound joy Some share this joy outwardly through their personalities others may be more serious outwardly but great joy sparkles in their eyes and is felt in their presence Yogananda s experience of life his experience of the goal of all life was filled with joy He lived in joy always and sought to awaken it in others Though he could be intensely serious and deep as appropriate he also could express the greatest joy often in unexpected situations The humor in The Man that Refused Heaven arose spontaneously from Yogananda s deep joy Sometimes he used humor to express an important spiritual principle Sometimes he used it in training the disciples to help them learn in a way that reasoned lectures could never achieve Most of the humor in this book was taken from Yogananda s writings Also included are experiences with the master that demonstrate his playful spirit These were written by Swami Kriyananda from his years of being trained personally by Yogananda or from stories that were shared with him by other close disciples The message of this book is both playful and serious The serious message is that joy can be found within us always We should look for it there and share it with others

Is Your Fork in Tune? Hayley Weatherburn, 2012-05-09 Ever wondered how twins can sense each other even when they are on the other side of the world Or thought about why you suddenly think of someone you haven't seen for ages and then they call you on the phone how does that happen Have you ever experienced or heard of animals predicting earthquakes or even sniffing out cancers what makes them do this Religion and prayer seem to produce some intriguing miracles can science explain this And then there is paranormal activity and superstitions are they real and if so what is going on that we don't understand These and many more questions plagued Hayley Weatherburn to read research and learn what was going on behind the scenes Being of a scientific mind she delved into the realm of quantum physics and discovered an answer Explaining it very simply with a few amusing and personal anecdotes she goes through different aspects of life as we know it and provides an interesting view on the way the world works and how to apply this new paradigm to your own everyday life Whether you are a scientist an atheist religious or youre not even sure this easy read takes you on a journey that may concrete your personal beliefs and help you to discover who you are and what you believe in
