Wahba,Zeinab A. Taha,Manuela E. B. Giolfo,2022-12-30 Foundational and comprehensive this volume provides a theoretical and practical overview of the current issues that dominate the field of teaching and learning Arabic grammar Bringing together authorities on Arabic grammar from around the world the book covers both historical contexts and current practices and provides principles strategies and examples of current Arabic grammar instruction across educational settings Chapter authors offer a range of perspectives on teaching approaches implementing research findings in the classroom and future challenges A much needed volume to help students teachers and teacher educators develop their knowledge and skills it addresses the most salient and controversial issues in the field including what grammar to teach how much grammar to teach how to address grammar in content based or communication based classroom and how to teach variation in grammar This resource is ideal for preservice Arabic language teachers as well as Arabic language professors and researchers Book Steven Berbeco,2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student s gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student s attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student s attitude toward the curriculum

Arabic as One Language Mahmoud Al-Batal,2017-12-04 For decades students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic MSA and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic While the MSA first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach Little research or evidence has been presented about the effectiveness of integrating dialect in the curriculum With the recent publication of textbooks that integrate dialect in the Arabic curriculum however a more systematic analysis of such integration is clearly becoming necessary In this seminal volume Mahmoud Al Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method s success The studies address curricular models students outcomes and attitudes of students and teachers using integration in their curricula This volume is an essential resource for all teachers of Arabic language and those working in Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language TAFL

Intercultural Communication and Language Pedagogy Zsuzsanna Abrams,2020-08-27 Using diverse language examples and tasks this book illustrates how intercultural communication theory can inform second language teaching
