All About My Mother Essay:

A Letter for My Mother Nina Foxx, 2014-04-08 Collects essays and letters from thirty three women writers about the bond between mothers and daughters What My Mother and I Don't Talk About Michele Filgate, 2020-08-11 You will devour these beautifully written and very important tales of honesty pain and resilience Elizabeth Gilbert New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love and City of Girls from fifteen brilliant writers who explore how what we don't talk about with our mothers affects us for better or for worse As an undergraduate Michele Filgate started writing an essay about being abused by her stepfather It took her more than a decade to realize that she was actually trying to write about how this affected her relationship with her mother When it was finally published the essay went viral shared on social media by Anne Lamott Rebecca Solnit and many others This gave Filgate an idea and the resulting anthology offers a candid look at our relationships with our mothers Leslie Jamison writes about trying to discover who her seemingly perfect mother was before ever becoming a mom In Cathi Hanauer's hilarious piece she finally gets a chance to have a conversation with her mother that isn't interrupted by her domineering but lovable father Andr Aciman writes about what it was like to have a deaf mother Melissa Febos uses mythology as a lens to look at her close knit relationship with her psychotherapist mother And Julianna Baggott talks about having a mom who tells her everything As Filgate writes Our mothers are our first homes and that's why we're always trying to return to them There's relief in acknowledging how what we couldn't say for so long is a way to heal our relationships with others and perhaps most important with ourselves Contributions by Cathi Hanauer Melissa Febos Alexander Chee Dylan Landis Bernice L McFadden Julianna Baggott Lynn Steger Strong Kiese Laymon Carmen Maria Machado Andr Aciman Sari Botton Nayomi Munaweera Brandon Taylor and Leslie Jamison The Language of Love and Guilt Ruth Wodak, Muriel Schulz, 1986-01-01 Although mother and daughter are two central female roles they have rarely been investigated The relationship is specific certainly different than the mother son or father daughter relationships And this difference manifests itself in sex specific language behavior Despite eternal features of the mother daughter relationship its quality is affected by individual psychological and by sociocultural variables Thus investigations took place in two big cities with very different structures and traditions Vienna and Los Angeles This is the first cross cultural study which reflects and combines multiple linguistic socio psycholinguistic and text linguistic categories approaches and methods to be able to investigate such an important topic as family relationships and the place of women nowadays in our societies On Losing the Soul Richard K. Fenn, Donald Capps, 1995-07-01 The social scientific literature on the self has been marred by a general indifference to the levels of the self that escape observation The literature on the one hand makes claims about the extent of individualism in American society or claims to see a narcissistic social character widespread in the American public On the other hand very little is known about the self at levels that escape observation but these are the levels at which the self is both most vulnerable and we argue most vital In this volume the notion of the soul is put forward as a hypothesis with which to challenge social sciences to explore the self at depths well beyond that of social relationships UP PGT English 2021
