Short stories

1. All is fair in love and war (Jan van tonder):
 - the story is about Edwill, Helena and Waldemar, and they are in a love triangle.
 - Edwill and Lita have a plan to get Waldemar and Helena away from each other. En die plan kom by Edwill op toe die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle die storie van Helena van Troje vertel.
 - "In die klas het die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle eendag die storie van Helena van Troje vertel en van die houtperd waarin soldate weggesteek is sodat hulle die stad onopgemerk kon binnegaan. En daar en dan het Edwill 'n plan gekry: hy sou met Waldemar vriende maak."

Karakters:

- ↘ Helena - Herinner ons aan klassieke karakter Helena van Troje
- ↘ Edwill - Verlief om Helena. Beraam plan om haar hart te wen.
- ↘ Waldemar - aantreklik, goeie rugbyspeler, nie goed met kommunikeer/woorde nie, Helena se kêrel
- ↘ Lita - Edwill se suster. Help Edwill om Helena se hart te wen.

Die aanvangsoomblik is wanneer Edwill besef dat hy verlief is op Helena en dit met sy sussie deel. Ons sien dat die spanning begin bou wanneer Lita beweer dat hulle die Achilleshiel in die verhouding opgespoor het.

insident waar Edwill aanbied om Helena se boeties besig te hou sodat sy meer tyd saam met Waldemar kan deurbring en Helena

South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt Makhado sagas Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed The language of record in courts also received attention in the media

Translanguaging, Coloniality and Decolonial Cracks Robyn Tyler, 2023-01-13 In this linguistic ethnography of bilingual science learning in a South African high school the author connects microanalyses of classroom discourse to broader themes of decoloniality in education The book challenges the deficit narrative often used to characterise the capabilities of linguistically minoritised youth and explores the challenges and opportunities associated with leveraging students full semiotic repertoires in learning specific concepts The author examines the linguistic landscape of the school and the beliefs and attitudes of staff and students which produce both coloniality and cracks in the edifice of coloniality A critical translanguaging lens is applied to analyse multilingual and multimodal aspects of students science meaning making in a traditional classroom and a study group intervention Finally the book suggests implications for decolonial pedagogical translanguaging in Southern multilingual classrooms

Institutions of World Literature Stefan Helgesson, Pieter Vermeulen, 2015-06-19 This volume engages critically with the recent and ongoing consolidation of world literature as a paradigm of study On the basis of an extended active and ultimately more literary sense of what it means to institute world literature it views processes of institutionalization not as limitations but as challenges to understand how literature may simultaneously function as an enabling and exclusionary world of its own It starts from the observation that literature is never simply a given but is always performatively and materially instituted by translators publishers academics and academics critics and readers as well as authors themselves This volume therefore substantiates refines as well as interrogates current approaches to world literature such as those developed by David Damrosch Pascale Casanova and Emily Apter Sections focus on the poetics of writers themselves market dynamics postcolonial negotiations of discrete archives of literature and translation engaging a range of related disciplines The chapters contribute to a fresh understanding of how singular literary works become inserted in transnational systems and conversely how transnational and institutional dimensions of literature are inflected in literary works Focusing its methodological and theoretical inquiries on a broad archive of texts spanning the triangle Europe Latin America Africa the volume unsettles North America as the self evident vantage of recent world literature debates Because of the volume s focus on dialogues between world literature and fields such as postcolonial studies translation studies book history and transnational studies it will be of interest to scholars and students in a range of areas Teaching Mathematics in Multilingual Classrooms J.B. Adler,2005-12-21 Increasingly teachers all over the world are grappling on a daily basis with the fact of multilingual classrooms In this book Jill Adler captures three inter related dilemmas that lie at the heart of teaching mathematics in multilingual classrooms Adler s identification and naming of the dilemma of code switching the dilemma of mediation and the dilemma of transparency arise from exploring the realities of actual classrooms and are shaped by a perspective of teaching as a social practice Adler provides a sharp analysis and strong theoretical grounding for her work pulling together research related to the relationship between language and mathematics communicating mathematics and mathematics in bi multilingual settings In so doing she offers a direct challenge to dominant research on communication in mathematics classrooms that has othered the multilingual setting in its normalisation of the monolingual classroom The norm is a multicultural one Set in contemporary South Africa a context of linguistic diversity and rapid change this book offers a spotlight whose beam is wide enough to illuminate dilemmas at work in all mathematics classrooms Race, Nation, Translation Zoë Wicomb,2018-11-20 The first collection of nonfiction critical writings by one of the leading literary figures of post apartheid South Africa The most significant nonfiction writings of Zo Wicomb one of South Africa s leading authors and intellectuals are collected here for the first time in a single volume This compilation features critical essays on the works of such prominent South African writers as Bessie Head Nadine Gordimer Njabulo Ndebele and J M Coetzee as well as writings on gender politics race identity visual art sexuality and a wide range of other cultural and political topics Also included are a reflection on Nelson Mandela and a revealing interview with Wicomb In these essays written between 1990 and 2013 Wicomb offers insight on her nation s history policies and people In a world in which nationalist rhetoric is on the rise and diversity and pluralism are the declared enemies of right wing populist movements her essays speak powerfully to a wide range of international issues Catalog of Copyright Entries. The Bounds of Race Dominick LaCapra, 2018-08-06 The concept of race is central to one of the most powerful ideological formations in history Dominick LaCapra argues in his introduction to this volume and understanding the effects of that ideology and its intricate relations with issues of class and gender is one of the most pressing challenges to contemporary modes of thought The eleven essays comprising The Bounds of Race confront this challenge with insight rigor and imagination The authors take on questions of language genre and politics with reference to African American Anglo American African South African Francophone North African British and Afro Hispanic texts Individual chapters discuss writings from an array of genres including homily autobiography the novel children's literature and political and scientific discourse Taken together the essays argue persuasively that the existing canon must be expanded that the protocols of interpretation must be transformed to make a prominent place for such issues as race and that the problem of interpretation cannot be posed in the absence of theoretically informed modes of historical investigation The Bounds of Race provides a subtle analysis of the variable role of racial ideologies and traces the interplay between hegemonic constraints and the strategies of resistance to them

History is a testament to what happened to a people or a place It shows how things were and their transformation while explaining why the changes happened Not only does history allow human beings to trace their trajectory in dealing with specific issues they face in the affairs of making a living it also highlights movements between people around the world while showing their role in creating systems still in place today History reveals to us major contributors of the trading systems along the east coast of Africa documenting the role of the Swahili people and their interactions with different people of the world The Swahili People and Their Language discusses ways in which the Swahili people came to occupy a prominent position in the world s trading system and how they lost their wealth through their contact with the outside world The book highlights the strategic position occupied by the Swahili people their natural resources their skills and their rich cultural mix and how the contact with the outside world played a major influence that is clearly noticeable to date The book contributes to the on going discussion about Africans and their participation in today s development and reminds readers that the creation of the current economic social and political situation of the Swahili people mirrors the history and positioning of many other formerly independent societies that became colonized nation states The authors provide discussions that shade light on critical questions such as Who are the Swahili people and why are they important Is there such a thing as a Swahili Civilization If so what is it and how does it relate to modern civilization What place does the Swahili language occupy both in its history and usage on the continent and in the rest of the world Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald,2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO s ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature s place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway,2002
