

A movie poster for 'Alien Invasion'. The top half features a large, dark, metallic alien head with a ribbed texture, its mouth open as if screaming or crying, with liquid dripping from its mouth. Below the head, a man with long brown hair is shown in a close-up, screaming with his eyes closed and hands covering his face. The background is a misty, forested landscape. The text 'WE DO NOT COME IN PEACE' is in the top right, and 'ALIEN INVASION' is at the bottom in large, glowing green letters.

ordinary word searches and then there are these created especially for kids by Mark Danna. What makes them special? For starters, many of them have shapes that relate to their themes: a penguin, a rocket ship, a wedding cake, a volcano, or some other appealing design. For another, some of them contain rebuses: example in Auto Focus the letters C A R appear as a little car. Best of all, every one of the 52 puzzles delivers a hidden payoff. After all the hidden words and phrases have been correctly circled, the remaining letters spell out a fascinating fact, a wacky joke, a tongue twister, or something else guaranteed to raise a smile. A surefire hit for kids who enjoy a challenge.

Disha Experts, Monstrosity and Global Crisis in Transnational Film, Media and Literature Steven Rawle, Martin Hall, 2024-07-09. Monsters have always rampant border crossers from Dracula's journey from Romania to Whitby to the rampaging monsters of Godzilla movies across global cities. This volume studies how their transnationality reflects an era of global crisis. Monstrosity has long been explored in a number of ways that connect gender, sexuality, class, race, nationality, and other forms of otherness with depictions of monsters or monstrosity. This book however explores cultural flow as it relates to the construction of a transnational genre by both producers and audiences. It also examines the ramifications of representations of monstrosity in socio-political terms as they relate to a tumultuous era of global crises. This era has of course been amplified and altered by the Covid pandemic which frames much of the content of this collection. This ongoing crisis imbues the discourses of monstrosity, global catastrophe, and societal and human vulnerability with its significant expression in artistic terms.
