Ahmadou Kourouma

Allah Is Not Obligated:

Allah Is Not Obligated Ahmadou Kourouma, 2007 A powerful and affecting novel of Africa's child soldiers by French Africa's pre-eminent novelist Birahima is ten years old. He lives in the Ivory Coast. He is a soldier. In Ahmadou Kourouma's extraordinary novel Birahima tells his story. At the age of ten his mother dies and Birahima leaves his native village accompanied by the sorcerer-crook Yacouba to search for his aunt Mahan. Crossing the border into Liberia they are seized by a rebel force and pressed into military service. Birahima is given a Kalashnikov, minimal rations of food, a small supply of dope and a tiny wage. Fighting in a totally chaotic civil war and alongside many other boys, some no older than himself, Birahima sees death, torture, amputation and madness but somehow manages to retain his own sanity. Ahmadou Kourouma's masterpiece is powerful, terrible and frequently bitterly funny. From the Hardcover edition. Mediating Violence from Africa George S. MacLeod, 2023-10 Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non-African Francophone authors, filmmakers, editors and scholars have packaged, interpreted and filmed the violent histories of post-Cold War Francophone Africa. This violence, much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras, included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union's castoff Kalashnikov rifles, the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda. Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives, cinematic representations of Islamist militants, genocide survivor testimony and Western scholarship, George S. MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers, as well as their editors and scholarly critics, negotiate the aesthetic, political, cultural and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible. MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post-Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post-1989 political discourse are echoed, contested or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors, filmmakers and Western scholars. The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today. How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals. More broadly, in an era in which stories and images of violence, from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality, are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context, these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma, the politicization of memory and Africa's place in a global, as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro-African, economic and political landscape. The Interpretation of The Meaning of The Holy Quran Volume 7 - Surah Al-Baqarah verse 262 to 286 Nasoha Bin Saabin, I have written many books and articles on various topics but since 2013 I have devoted myself fully in writing the interpretation of the Holy Quran in English and with the grace of Allah I have completed the whole Quran on 29th October 2020 with 84 books. I believe there is a great need in the whole world for the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran to be written in English. Currently, there is a great misunderstanding about Islam among Muslims and non-Muslims globally. The misunderstanding of the meaning of the Holy Quran among Muslims will lead to the wrong practice of

Islam which leads to the wrong actions of Muslims The wrong actions of Muslims will lead to misunderstandings about Islam among Muslims and non Muslims The wrong actions of the Muslims have led to many miseries and wars among Muslims The wrong actions of Muslims have also led to many wars and clashes between Muslims and non Muslims In order to avoid miseries wars and clashes from taking place between the whole mankind in the whole world the whole mankind in the whole world need to understand the true teaching of Islam There is no other way for the whole mankind to understand the true teaching of Islam unless the whole mankind is able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran The whole mankind is only able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran when it is written in the universal language of the world English For this very reason I have written the interpretation of the Holy Quran in English
