Senza Vestimenta: The Literary Tradition of Trecento Song Lauren Jennings,2016-04-01 The metaphor of marriage often describes the relationship between poetry and music in both medieval and modern writing While the troubadours stand out for their tendency to blur the distinction between speaking and singing between poetry and song a certain degree of semantic slippage extends into the realm of Italian literature through the use of genre names like canzone sonetto and ballata Yet paradoxically scholars have traditionally identified a divorce between music and poetry as the defining feature of early Italian lyric Senza Vestimenta reintegrates poetic and musical traditions in late medieval Italy through a fresh evaluation of more than fifty literary sources transmitting Trecento song texts These manuscripts have been long noted by musicologists but until now they have been used to bolster rather than to debunk the notion that so called poesia per musica was relegated to the margins of poetic production Jennings revises this view by exploring how scribes and readers interacted with song as a fundamentally interdisciplinary art form within a broad range of literary settings Her study sheds light on the broader cultural world surrounding the reception of the Italian ars nova repertoire by uncovering new diverse readers ranging from wealthy merchants to modest artisans      The Laity's Directory for the Church Service on Sundays and Holy Days for the Year of Our Lord ... ,1833      The Elements of General Method Charles Alexander McMurry,1893      Kingdom Family Trevecca Okholm,2012-02-09 There is a lot of talk these days about how churches need to become more missional and Kingdom focused but what about the families that make up our churches and often reflect the surrounding culture more than the Kingdom of God Christian families know that God has a better purpose for marriage and family but often don t have the slightest idea how to get there And while many books on Christian marriage and family are inwardly focused on simply getting along better this book addresses the cultural influences that have taken our focus away from God's intended purpose for marriage and family and through analysis and practical suggestions recalls marriages and families to the purpose for which God intended them in the first place namely to serve God's Kingdom as witnesses to a world desperately seeking deeper purpose and authenticity      Witnesses for Christ and Memorials of Church Life Edward Backhouse, Charles Tylor, 1887      Denial from Devotion Alfred Liseo, 2010 When he defended his nation why was the battalion commanding officer of former Sergeant Joseph Luca reluctant to defend reasons the Congressional Medal of Honor not be awarded to this United States Marine as recommended by Lucas commanding officer Why was the Congressional Medal of Honor downgraded to a Navy Cross when heroic deeds were witnessed at the risk of life Lucas to insure freedom for the country he was serving in the United States Marine Corps in combat as a United States Marine as an Italian Citizen The Vietnam War and the battle at Quang Ngai Province in the Republic of Vietnam will be told by this author as to the bravery of a United States Marine former Sergeant Joseph Luca and an effort by the author to determine why did those who voted as members of an awards board endorse the Navy Cross one exception that of a Silver Star vice the Congressional Medal of Honor Those decisions I later wrote as Denial from Devotion Although documents did provide overwhelming evidence detailing Operation DeSoto as one of the longest battle missions in the Vietnam War with Lucas participation taking place on March 5 1967 leaving many questions unanswered why the Congressional Medal of Honor recommended by his commanding officer documented in his report to wit Luca's daring and aggressive actions his uncommon valor courageous leadership conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life and beyond the call of duty why weren't the contents of this report respected rather than perhaps ignored or disregarded from a competent Military Commander the commanding officer at the scene of the mission Captain Oliver M Whipple who witnessed with others the events of the battle and recommended the Congressional Medal of Honor so deserving to Luca downgraded to a Navy Cross During this accounting in Denial from Devotion Book I the question persists as to why Denial from Devotion Book II the quest outlines the details and further pursuit of The Congressional Medal of Honor through many efforts of the U S Congress
