Read The Storm's Arrival. Underline a simile, circle a metaphor, and box an example of personification.

The Storm's Arrival

The sky darkened like a curtain falling at the end of a play. A rush settled over the town as the first raindrop splashed onto the pavement. Then, without warning, the clouds unleashed their fury, drenching the streets in a heavy downpour.

The wind howled through the trees, rattling the windows and sending loose leaves spinning like tiny dancers. Thunder rumbled in the distance, a low growl that warned of the storm's growing strength. A bolt of lightning slashed across the sky, a silver serpent striking the earth.

In the park, the swings creaked and groaned, begging for the storm to pass. Puddles grew larger by the second, gulping down the rain like a thirsty traveler in the desert. The air smelled of wet pavement and fresh earth, a reminder that nature was both powerful and unpredictable.

Then, just as quickly as it had arrived, the storm tipped away, leaving behind a world glistening with raindrops. The clouds parted, and the sun peeked through, stretching its golden arms to dry the drenched town.
