Bureau of the Mint, 1893 Letters from Kimberly Edward Spiers, 2013-12-02 Full of new material fresh insights and perceptive analysis Ian Knight The defence of Kimberley and the mission to relieve it was one of the great dramatic sagas of the South African War The actual relief following a spectacular cavalry charge represented the first decisive upturn in the fortunes of the British war effort soon followed by a crushing defeat of the Boers at the battle of Paardeberg Within Kimberley citizens suffered from dwindling food stocks and enemy shelling but even more controversial were the tensions that erupted between the siege commander Lieutenant Colonel Kekewich and Kimberley's leading citizen Cecil Rhodes In this illuminating new history Edward Spiers presents a selection of first hand accounts of this epic siege The 260 letters were published originally in British metropolitan and provincial newspapers and they provide crucial insights into the perceptions of civilians caught up in the siege the desperate and bloody attempts to relieve the town and the experiences of junior officers and other ranks as they struggled to cope with the demands of modern warfare Full of human incident drama and pathos these fascinating eyewitness testimonies make for compelling reading and add richly to our understanding of the events in Cape Colony The gold Fields of South Africa, comprising the history, extent, locality, and geological formation of the various gold fields, copiously illustrated ,1890 The Press Annual ,1895 Gold Paved the Way NA NA, 2015-12-25 Stand Still Like the Hummingbird Henry Miller, 1962 One of Henry Miller's most luminous statements of his personal philosophy of life Stand Still Like the Hummingbird provides a symbolic title for this collection of stories and essays Many of them have appeared only in foreign magazines while others were printed in small limited editions which have gone out of print Miller's genius for comedy is at its best in Money and How It Gets That Way a tongue in cheek parody of economics provoked by a postcard from Ezra Pound which asked if he ever thought about money His deep concern for the role of the artist in society appears in An Open Letter to All and Sundry and in The Angel is My Watermark he writes of his own passionate love affair with painting The Immorality of Morality is an eloquent discussion of censorship Some of the stories such as First Love are autobiographical and there are portraits of friends such as Patchen Man of Anger and Light and essays on other writers such as Walt Whitman Thoreau Sherwood Anderson and Ionesco Taken together these highly readable pieces reflect the incredible vitality and variety of interests of the writer who extended the frontiers of modern literature with Tropic of Cancer and other great books The Diamond Mines of South Africa Gardner Fred Williams, 1906 South Africa ,1912 Report of the Director of the Mint Upon the Production of the Precious Metals in the United States ,1893 The Review of Reviews
