Education Department, 1908 East European Accessions Index , 1960 Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper , 1891 Covers the period from 1790 to 1905 in The Times of London Christianity in China Xiaoxin Wu, 2015-07-17 Now revised and updated to incorporate numerous new materials this is the major source for researching American Christian activity in China especially that of missions and missionaries It provides a thorough introduction and guide to primary and secondary sources on Christian enterprises and individuals in China that are preserved in hundreds of libraries archives historical societies headquarters of religious orders and other repositories in the United States It includes data from the beginnings of Christianity in China in the early eighth century through 1952 when American missionary activity in China virtually ceased For this new edition the institutional base has shifted from the Princeton Theological Seminary Protestant to the Ricci Institute for Chinese Western Cultural Relations at the University of San Francisco Jesuit reflecting the ecumenical nature of this monumental undertaking The Spectator , 1853 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Allen's Indian Mail and Register of Intelligence for British & Foreign India, China, & All Parts of the East , 1857 Crossing Continents Duncan Campbell-Smith, 2021-05-13 For almost a hundred years from the 1860s the City of London's overseas banks financed the global trade that lay at the core of the British Empire Foremost among them from the beginning were two start up ventures the Standard Bank of South Africa which soon developed a powerful domestic franchise at the Cape and the Chartered Bank of India Australia and China This book traces their stories in the nineteenth century their glory days before 1914 and their remarkable survival in the face of global wars and the collapse of world trade in the first half of the twentieth century The unravelling of the Empire after 1945 eventually forced Britain's overseas banks to confront a different future The Standard and the Chartered alarmed at the expansion of American banking determined in 1969 on a merger as a way of sustaining the best of the City's overseas traditions But from the start Standard Chartered had to grapple with the fading fortunes of its own inherited franchise badly dented in both Asia and Africa and with radical changes in the nature of banking Its British managers steeped in the past proved ill suited to the challenge By the late 1980s efforts to expand in Europe and the USA had brought the merged Group to the brink of collapse Yet it survived and then pulled off a dramatic recovery Standard Chartered realigned itself just in time with the phenomenal growth of Asia's emerging markets many of them in countries where the Chartered had flourished a century earlier In the process the Group was transformed Trebling its workforce it brushed aside the global financial crisis of 2008 and by 2012 could look back on a decade of astonishing growth Recent times have added an eventful postscript to a long and absorbing history Crossing Continents recounts Standard Chartered s story with a wealth of detail from one of the richest archives available to any commercial bank The book also affords a rare and compelling perspective on the evolution of international trade and finance showing how Britain s commercial influence has actually worked in practice around the world over one hundred and fifty years
