Cape Town Harmonies Armelle Gaulier, Denis-Constant Martin, 2017-07-19 Cape Towns public cultures can only be fully appreciated through recognition of its deep and diverse soundscape We have to listen to what has made and makes a city The ear is an integral part of the research tools one needs to get a sense of any city We have to listen to the sounds that made and make the expansive mother city Various of its constituent parts sound different from each other T here is the sound of the singing men and their choirs teams they are called in preparation for the longstanding annual Malay choral competitions

The lyrics from the various repertoires they perform are hardly ever written down There are texts of the hallowed Dutch songs but these do not circulate easily and widely Researchers dream of finding lyrics from decades ago not to mention a few generations ago back to the early 19th century This work by Denis Constant Martin and Armelle Gaulier provides us with a very useful selection of these songs More than that it is a critical sociological reflection of the place of these songs and their performers in the context that have given rise to them and sustains their relevance It is a necessary work and is a very important scholarly intervention about a rather neglected aspect of the history and present production of music in the city
