Design Cybernetics Thomas Fischer, Christiane M. Herr, 2019-07-30 Design Cybernetics Navigating the New Design cybernetics offers a way of looking at ourselves curious creative and ethical humans as self organising systems that negotiate their own goals in open ended explorations of the previously unknown It is a theory of and for epistemic practices learning designing researching that is deeply committed to the autonomy of others and hence offers no prescriptive methodology Design cybernetics describes design practice as inextricable from conversation a way of enquiring developing shared understanding and reaching the new that harnesses reliable control as well as error and serendipity Recognising circular causality observer dependency and non determinability design cybernetics extends beyond tenets of scientific research into the creative ethical and aesthetic domain From this perspective design is not an ill conceived subset of scientific research Instead scientific research emerges as a particularly restricted subset of the broader human activity of design This volume offers a cross section of design cybernetic theory and practice with contributions ranging across architecture interior lighting studies product design embedded systems design pedagogy design theory social transformation design research epistemology art and poetics as well as theatre and acting Addressing designers design educators and researchers interested in a rigorous practice based epistemology it establishes design cybernetics as a foundational perspective of design research This is a conceptually elegant well structured and comprehensive presentation of design cybernetics It fills a gap in the literature of the field Ken Friedman Chair Professor Tongji University This book offers a valuable and timely introduction to second order cybernetics as society grapples with complex issues like climate change and rising inequality Joichi Ito Director of the MIT Media Lab

A Sense of the Whole Mark Gonnerman, 2015-06-09 In 1997 Mark Gonnerman organized a yearlong research workshop on Gary Snyder s Mountains and Rivers Without End at the Stanford Humanities Center Members of what came to be known among faculty students and diverse community members as the Mountains Rivers Workshop met regularly to read and discuss Snyder s epic poem Here the poem served as a commons that turned the multiversity into a university once again if only for a moment The Workshop invited writers teachers and scholars from Northern California and Japan to speak on various aspects of Snyder s great accomplishment This book captures the excitement of these gatherings and invites readers to enter the poem through essays and talks by David Abram Wendell Berry Carl Bielefeldt Tim Dean Jim Dodge Robert Hass Stephanie Kaza Julia Martin Michael McClure Nanao Sakaki and Katsunori Yamazato It includes an interview with Gary Snyder appendices and other resources for further study Snyder once introduced a reading of this work with reference to whitewater rapids saying most of his writing is like a Class III run where you will do just fine on your own but that Mountains and Rivers is more like Class V if you re going to make it to take out you need a guide As a collection of commentaries and background readings this companion volume enhances each reader s ability to find their way into and through an adventurous and engaging work of art
