Norm Contestation, Sovereignty and (Ir)responsibility at the International Criminal Court Emanuela Piccolo Koskimies, 2021-10-26 Grappling specifically with the norm of sovereignty as responsibility the book seeks to advance a critical constructivist understanding of norm development in international society as opposed to the conventional or liberal constructivist mis understanding that still dominates the debate Against this backdrop the book delves into the institutionalization of sovereignty as responsibility within the lived practice of the International Criminal Court ICC More to the point the proposed exploration intends to revive questions about the power laden nature of the normative fabric of international society its dis symmetries and its outright hierarchies in order to devise an original framework to operationalize research on how institutional practice impinges on norm development To this end the book resorts to an original creole vocabulary which combines the contributions of post positivist constructivist scholars with the legacy of key post modernist thinkers such as Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida as well as critical approaches to International Criminal Law and Post Colonial Studies The book will appeal to scholars of international relations and international law in addition to critical scholars more broadly as well as to practitioners in the fields of human rights and international justice interested in normative theory and the implementation and contestation of international social norms
