2016 Application Forms For University Of Kwazulunatal:

ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017
Experimental Life Writing Today Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drag, 2025-10-02 This comprehensive volume offers compelling critical essays surveying the myriad forms of innovation in contemporary Anglophone life writing. Experimental Life Writing Today provides a historical and critical context for examining avant garde tendencies in biography and autobiography and outlines the poetics of experimental life writing. The volume is divided into two parts. The first is devoted to a selection of experimental genres of life writing: autofiction, biofiction, paramemoir, autotheory, graphic memoir, photo memoir, eco memoir, and the lyric essay. Part Two includes chapters concerned with the following themes: concepts and devices set in the context of experimental life writing; illness, disability, mourning, relationality, place, catalogue, narration, and fragmentation. To ensure clarity and consistency, each chapter follows the same structure: a theoretical discussion of a given notion comprising a brief discussion of its various aspects and examples, followed by a close reading of a chosen text. Case studies are devoted to significant contemporary works by authors such as Hazel V. Carby, J. M. Coetzee, Anne Garréta, Karen Green, Vona Groarke, Han Kang, Mary Karr, Deborah Levy, Hilary Mantel, Maggie Nelson, Ruth Ozeki, Mark Tredinnick, Una D. J. Waldie, and Wim Wenders. The volume is dedicated to exploring innovative forms of and in contemporary Anglophone life writing and it makes an important contribution to a rich and burgeoning field of interdisciplinary practice and research.

Museum Cooperation between Africa and Europe Thomas Laely, Marc Meyer, Raphael Schwere, 2018-07-20 At a time of major transformations in the conditions and self-conceptions of cultural history and ethnological museums worldwide, it has become increasingly important for these museums to engage in cooperative projects. This book brings together insights and analyses of a wide variety of approaches to museum cooperation from different expert perspectives. Featuring a variety of African and European points of view and providing detailed empirical evidence, it establishes a new field of museological study and provides some suggestions for future museum practice.
Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa Michael Addaney, Patrick Cobbinah, 2021-12-30 Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides a variety of conventional and emerging theoretical frameworks to inform understandings and responses to critical urban development issues such as urbanisation, climate change, housing, slum informality, urban sprawl, urban ecosystem services, and urban poverty among others within the context of the sustainable development goals (SDGs) in Africa. This book addresses topics including challenges to spatial urban development, how spatial planning is delivered, how different urbanisation variables influence the development of different forms of urban systems and settlements in Africa, how city authorities could use old and new methods of land administration to produce sustainable urban spaces in Africa, and the role of local activism in causing important changes in the built environment. Chapters are written by a diverse range of African scholars and practitioners in urban planning and policy, design, environmental science and policy, sociology, agriculture, natural resources management, environmental law, and politics.

Urban Africa has huge resource potential both human and natural resources that can stimulate sustainable development when effectively harnessed Sustainable Urban Futures in Africa provides support for the SDGs in urban Africa and will be of interest to students and researchers professionals and policymakers and readers of urban studies spatial planning geography governance and other social sciences Spatial Histories of Radical Geography Trevor J. Kasim, 2020-04-17 The use of information and communication technologies ICTs in education has revolutionized learning Shifting beyond traditional mode of education the integration of ICTs has become an advantage for students at tertiary education when used for the right purpose to enhance learning The use of technology brings forth a flexible and accessible mode of education and bridges the gap of learning across borders This enables students at tertiary level to have access to other universities and academic resource materials globally thereby expanding their knowledge Thus it is crucial to consider the development of technology in education as part of a comprehensive pedagogical framework and take into account new developments in ICTs ICT Based Assessment Methods and Programs in Tertiary Education is an essential research publication that provides relevant theoretical frameworks and recent empirical research findings on integrating ICTs in tertiary education to enhance learning and allow students to take more control of their learning Highlighting topics such as assessment language learning and e learning this book is ideal for teachers professionals academicians researchers administrators curriculum designers instructional designers and students

Transforming Universities in South Africa, 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage

Street Rebellion Benjamin S. Case, 2022-12-06 The complex relationship between violence and nonviolence in social movements We are living in a time of uprisings that routinely involve physical confrontation burning vehicles barricades vandalism and scuffles between protesters and authorities Yet the Left has struggled to incorporate rioting into theories of change remaining stuck in recurring debates over violence and nonviolence Civil resistance studies have popularized the term strategic nonviolence spreading the notion that violence is wholly counter productive Street Rebellion scrutinizes recent research and develops a broad and grounded portrait of the relationship between strategic nonviolence and rioting in the struggle for liberation

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations
