Porta, César Guzmán-Concha

2016 Postgraduate Ufs:

Postgraduate Supervision Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2016-11-21 The 24 chapters contained in this volume provide diverse but also congruent perspectives on future foci for research into postgraduate education and supervision in the knowledge society The chapters move from deliberations on challenges for postgraduate supervision at macro level such as the pressure to increase postgraduate output and the implications of increasingly managerialist institutions to meso level matters the form and function of postgraduate education in specific countries to the micro rich case studies of individual institutions programmes and supervisors

Student Movements in Late Neoliberalism Lorenzo Cini, Donatella della Porta, César Guzmán-Concha, 2021-08-22 This book inquires into the global wave of student mobilizations that have arisen in the aftermath of the economic crisis of 2008 accounting for their historical and sociological significance More specifically its eleven chapters explore the role of students as political actors their ability to build effective organizations to make political alliances with other actors and to win public consensus as well as their impact on cultural political and policy outcomes To do so the volume examines case studies in England Chile South Africa Quebec and Hong Kong covering Europe Africa Asia and North and Latin America Grouped into two major sections the collection covers the organizational structures of student movements and their alliances and outcomes Ultimately this volume examines the understudied political aspects of student unrest exploring how student mobilizations driven by indebtedness precariousness the corporatization of the university and other issues correspond to larger processes of change with wider implications in society

Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics

Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education Gumbo, Mishack Thiza, Gaotlhobogwe, Michael, Pedzisai, Constantino, Jojo, Zingiswa Mybert Monica, Knaus, Christopher B., 2024-05-13 A deep seated issue persists in postgraduate education one that threatens the relevance of academia in our diverse and evolving world The problem at hand is the Western centric nature of postgraduate education where research paradigms methodologies and theoretical frameworks overwhelmingly reflect a Western worldview This rigid adherence to Western ideologies has left indigenous communities on the periphery of academic discourse denying them the opportunity to engage with their knowledge systems and practices Despite the richness and prevalence of indigenous knowledge the existing educational structure remains a barrier to their inclusion This disconnect is not only an academic concern but also a societal one as it hinders sustainable development and stifles the voices of indigenous scholars and students Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education serves as a compelling solution to the problem at hand It offers a comprehensive roadmap to decolonize postgraduate education infusing it with indigenous approaches paradigms theories and methods Through critical examination and practical strategies this book empowers academics curriculum designers and postgraduate students to embark on a transformative journey The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, Ronnie Donaldson, Cecil Seethal, 2016-09-20

Transformation and Legitimation in Post-apartheid Universities Dionne van Reenen, J.C. van der Merwe, 2016-07-01 Two decades after the democratic transition South African universities are in turmoil Whilst the old is slowly becoming unhinged reimagining the new is protracted and contested The challenges ahead including a funding crunch are formidable and bear the imprint of South African postcolonial specificities and global transformations in higher education At this moment critical and engaged socio historical scholarship is indispensable Transformation and Legitimation in Post apartheid Universities Reading discourses from Reitz is such a work Revisiting the notorious Reitz incident of 2008 when a satirical video made by students from the University of the Free State UFS to register their resistance to the racial integration of black students into historically white residences became public the text offers an analysis of the broader cultural and socio political context that constituted the conditions of possibility for the incident and its aftermath Attention is shifted from the principal actors in the original drama a handful of students and workers to a critical interrogation of the broader structures positions discourses and practices that fed into the Reitz incident reaching into the present with violent and racially charged student and worker protests in 2016 Van der Merwe and Van Reenen deliver a theoretically rich analysis of the anatomy of current contestations about race and transformation in higher education in South Africa the resultant legitimization crisis facing the UFS and South African universities more generally as well as ways to restore institutional legitimacy and reputation focusing on instituting deeper more durable change that unlocks the promise of democracy Dr Irma du Plessis University of Pretoria Educational Leadership for Transformation and Social Justice John Ambrosio, 2016-11-03 Educational Leadership for Transformation and Social Justice examines the relationship between the lived experiences of educational leaders at the University of the Free State in South Africa and how they think about and practice leadership for transformation and social justice Based on biographical information public speeches published writings and in depth semi structured face to face interviews the book presents and analyses seven chapter length narratives of these leaders This book explores how some leaders at the University of the Free State from the vantage point of various racialized and gendered identities and generational experiences conceptualize and enact leadership for transformation and social justice Ambrosio argues that there are certain values beliefs concepts principles and ways of thinking that cut across their experiences and demographic differences The narratives are presented in the leaders own words and describe how their lived experiences shaped their values and identities and inform how they think about and practice leadership for transformation and social justice One convergence that emerged among these leaders is that their leadership is an extension of who they are of their core values identities and ethical commitments Another is that they are motivated by visions of change that go beyond the University by bigger dreams that infuse their work with meaning and purpose With its in depth analysis of the narratives this book will provide educational leaders who have an orientation towards transformation and social justice with insights that enable them to think differently about how to make the policies programs and institutional culture of their own universities more equitable and just It will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education educational justice higher education educational leadership and change social justice and racial justice Creating Conditions for Student Success Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2021-12-15 The various chapters of this book have brilliantly provided perspectives on creating conditions for success in higher education from a wide variety of stakeholders within a university environment The rich content comes from varying fields of study as well as academic development and student affairs directorates within the institution This is what is exciting about the book The diversity of focus in chapters makes the book relevant to anyone with interest in higher education matters From the opening to the closing chapter students are making a contribution on what the university has done or is doing for them to succeed or what it should consider doing to improve its service to students This touches on every environment that students find themselves in a university setting from residences to the classroom to commuter or off campus students The book s extended use of the capabilities approach and critical social theories has enabled it to provide nuances on not only the success of students but more importantly about how the higher education environment can transform itself to practices relevant for the sector today The various research studies in this book can benefit similar university contexts nationally and internationally O FUTURO

2016 Postgraduate Ufs Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading 2016 Postgraduate Ufs free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading 2016 Postgraduate Ufs free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading 2016 Postgraduate Ufs free PDF files is convenient, its important to note that copyright laws must be respected.
