2016 Registration At Lungile:

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 The Politics of the Near Jérôme Tournadre, 2022-05-17 The Politics of the Near offers a novel approach to social unrest in post apartheid South Africa Keeping the noise of demonstrations barricades and clashes with the police at a distance this ethnography of a poor people's movement traces individual commitments and the mainsprings of mobilization in the ordinary social and intimate life of activists their relatives and other township residents Tournadre's approach picks up on aspects of activists' lives that are often neglected in the study of social movements that help us better understand the dynamics of protest and the attachment of activists to their organization and its cause What Tournadre calls a politics of the near takes shape through sometimes innocuous actions and beyond the separation between public and domestic spheres By mapping the daily life of Black and low income neighborhoods and the intimate domain where expectations and disappointments surface The Politics of the Near offers a different perspective on the rainbow nation a perspective more sensitive to the fact that three decades after the end of apartheid poverty and race are still as tightly interwoven as ever The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe, 2025-04-07
Zimbabwe is a country whose longer past and shifting post independence politics have both included violent histories as well as often violent contestations over history itself The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe addresses the many ways in which pasts are variously experienced remembered claimed denied or contested by differently positioned actors and how this in turn shapes the politics of the present It explores how such contestation is expressed in literature art and the media through exhumations and reburials in state apology and political myth making and in both traditional cultural heritage sites and the making of new national symbols Contributors are Jocelyn Alexander Elleke Boehmer Shadreck Chirikure Simbarashe Shadreck Chitima Lena Englund Shari Eppel Petina Gappah Amanda Hammar Pedzisai Maedza Owen Maseko Mphathisi Ndlovu Minna Johanna Niemi Astrid Rasch Timothy Scarnecchia Thomas Thondhlana Katja Uusihakala The Infrastructures of Security Martin Murray, 2022-08-15 The shift from dependence upon human decision making in security services to Artificial Intelligence Queer Activism in South African Education Dennis A. Francis, 2022-08-19 Offering a vital critical contribution to debates on gender sexuality and schooling in South Africa this book highlights how South African educational practices discourses and structures normalize cisheteronormativity along with how these are resisted within schools and through contemporary forms of activism Not only does it add fresh insights to the existing research literature on gender sexualities and schooling it also underscores the valuable contributions of queer and transgender social movements which have made influential legislative teaching learning and support contributions to education Drawing on ethnographic research with queer and transgender activists teachers school managers parents and school attending youth the book provides everyday real life quotes and observations offering a deeply critical contribution to the debates on gender and sexualities education and activism Using spatial and affect theories it troubles the assumptions that frame this field of research to make a novel contribution to the national and international literature and research The book provides research based insights for thinking about and calls for informed action to challenging cisheteronormativity within and beyond schools

Strategies for Survival at SIBIKWA 1988 - 2021 Phyllis Klotz, Smal Ndaba, 2022-12-30 This book provides an engaging and contextualised insight into a South African township based arts centre that has survived the vicissitudes of steady militarisation in townships during some of the worst years of apartheid as well as the exhilaration of a new democratic policy while attempting to circumnavigate different policies and funding dispensations Sibikwa provides arts centres across the world and especially those in decolonising countries with strategies for survival in tumultuous times This multi disciplinary book maps and co ordinates wider historical political and social contextual concerns and events with matters specific to a community based east of Johannesburg and provides an exploration and analysis by experts of authentic theatre making and performance dance indigenous music arts in education and NGO governance It has contemporary significance and raises important questions regarding inclusivity and transformation the function and future of arts centres community based applied arts practices creativity and international partnerships This study will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance indigenous music dance and South African history Explorations in Southern African Drama, Theatre and Performance Patrick J. Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts

The Oxford Handbook of Screen Comedy Peter C. Kunze, Assistant Professor of Communication Peter C Kunze, Distinguished Teaching Professor of English and Film William V Costanzo, William V. Costanzo, 2025 The Oxford Handbook of Screen Comedy offers a rich sampling of the most current research and evolving trends in a vast and growing field the study of humor and comedy in movies television streaming content social media and other forms of mediated comedy The thirty new essays in this volume written by leading scholars and emerging researchers are guideposts to where the field is now and where it is heading By its very nature comedy eludes definition and crosses boundaries Trying to grab the wriggling creature and subject it to analysis presents special challenges The contributors featured in this volume apply a range of methods to analyse case histories interpret trends and theorize the changing face of comedy Some celebrate the diverse pleasures of laughter some critique its more nefarious practices and warn of salient dangers Together they bring insights from feminist black and queer studies focus on issues of identity and ideology extend and revise notions of historical development and follow the emergence and migration of comic forms in Latin America China North Korea and South Africa The broad aim of this book is to increase awareness of these exciting studies and inspire more productive exploration as the field continues to grow

The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021-11-18 While sharing some characteristics with other middle income countries South Africa is a country with a unique economic history and distinctive economic features It is a regional economic powerhouse that plays a significant role not only in southern Africa and in the continent but also as a member of BRICS However there has been a lack of structural transformation and weak economic growth and South Africa faces the profound triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment Any meaningful debate about economic policies to address these challenges needs to be informed by a deep understanding of historical developments robust empirical evidence and rigorous analysis of South Africa's complex economic landscape This volume seeks to provide a wide ranging set of original detailed and state of the art analytical perspectives that contribute to scientific knowledge as well as to well informed and productive discourse on the South African economy While concentrating on the more recent economic issues facing South Africa the handbook also provides historical and political context It offers an in depth examination of strategic issues in the country's key economic sectors and brings together diverse analytical perspectives

Art and Activism in the Age of Systemic Crisis Eliza Steinbock, Bram Ieven, Marijke de Valck, 2020-10-07 This book examines how renewed forms of artistic activism were developed in the wake of the neoliberal repression since the 1980s The volume shows the diverse ways in which artists have sought to confront systemic crises around the globe searching for new and enduring forms of building communities and reimagining the political horizon The authors engage in a dialogue with these artistic efforts and their histories in particular the earlier artistic activism that was developed during the civil rights era in the 1960s and 70s providing valuable historical insight and new conceptual reflection on the future of aesthetic resilience This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art history of art film and literary studies protest movements and social movements
