

510 | ICSE Last 10 Years Solved Papers

(c) Given : Principal = ₹ 15,000

We know that

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Amount after 1st year} &= 15,000 \left(1 + \frac{8}{100} \right) \\ &= ₹ 16,200 \end{aligned}$$

$$\text{Principal after repayment} = 16,200 - 6,200 = ₹ 10,000$$

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Amount outstanding at the end of second year} &= 10,000 \left(1 + \frac{10}{100} \right) \\ &= ₹ 11,000 \end{aligned}$$

Question 2.

Ans.

(a) From a pack of 52 playing cards all cards whose numbers are multiples of 3 are removed. A card is now drawn at random.

What is the probability that the card drawn is :

(i) a face card (King, Jack or Queen)

(ii) an even numbered red card ?

(b) Solve the following equation :

[3]

$x - \frac{18}{x} = 6$. Give your answer correct to two significant figures.

[3]

(c) In the given figure O is the centre of the circle. Tangents at A and B meet at C. If $\angle AOC = 30^\circ$, find

(i) $\angle BCO$

(ii) $\angle AOB$

(iii) $\angle APB$

[4]

Solution :

(a) Number of cards which are multiples of 3 = 12

Cards left in the pack = 40

(i) Number of face cards = 12

$$P(\text{face card}) = \frac{12}{40} = \frac{3}{10}$$

Ans.

(ii) Even numbered red cards = 10

$$P(\text{even number red card}) = \frac{10}{40} = \frac{1}{4}$$

Ans.

(b) Let $x^2 - 6x - 18 = 0$
Compare with equation $ax^2 + bx + c = 0$, we get $a = 1, b = -6, c = -18$

Now,

$$\begin{aligned} x &= \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a} \\ &= \frac{6 \pm \sqrt{36 + 72}}{2} \end{aligned}$$

2014 Grade 10 Maths Lite Paper 2 Final Exam:

Early mathematics counts Yasmin A Sitabkhan, Linda Platas, 2018-07-23 This occasional paper examines common instructional strategies in early grade mathematics interventions through a review of studies in classrooms in low and middle income countries Twenty four studies met the criteria for inclusion and analyses reveal four sets of instructional strategies for which there is evidence from multiple contexts Of the 24 studies 16 involved the use of multiple representations 10 involved the use of developmental progressions 6 included supporting student use of explanation and justification and 5 included integration of informal mathematics Based on the review we provide conclusions and recommendations for future research and policy

Girls Have Academic Advantages and So Do Boys Jodie Fonseca, Laiba Bahrawar, Margaret M. Dubeck, Yasmin Sitabkhan, Christopher Cummiskey, Devanshi Unadkat, 2023-05-15 This paper contains a new analysis of gender differences in early grade reading and mathematics outcomes in 19 USAID funded studies over the past decade from 14 locations in Africa Asia Latin America and the Middle East The paper addresses gaps in the literature related to learning patterns for girls and boys in lower and middle income countries and in early primary school We analyzed the results from reading and mathematics assessments in grades 2 and 3 including differences in oral reading fluency ORF and quantitative comparison scores between boys and girls as well as differences in score distributions by gender In line with results from assessments in upper grades and in wealthier countries we found that girls consistently outperformed boys in reading In mathematics boys slightly outperformed girls although the differences were typically not large Global experience has shown that patterns in poor performance become more entrenched the further learners progress through the grades suggesting that early interventions for boys in reading and girls in mathematics could have long term benefits At the same time both girls and boys typically score below expectations in the two subjects across countries necessitating targeted strategies to improve outcomes for both genders early in their educational trajectories

Substance Misuse Prevention Program Attendance Marni L. Kan, Hsiu Chen Yeh, Lisa M. Schainker, Jessica Nelson, Samantha Charm, Cleve Redmond, Richard Spoth, 2022-12-19 Typical life circumstances for military families may impact their participation in prevention programs yet little is known about what factors influence their participation The current study examined predictors of attendance in the Strengthening Families Program For Parents and Youth 10 14 for Military Families a universal in person program designed to improve family functioning and reduce youth substance misuse and other problem behaviors Participants included 159 parent child dyads randomly selected to be offered the 7 week family program Analyses examined demographic characteristics deployment experiences time spent waiting for the program to begin and psychosocial functioning as predictors of attendance in a series of regression models Of the 39 percent of families that attended any program sessions the majority 71 percent attended at least four of the seven sessions Attendance varied significantly across the geographic areas in which groups were held Prior service utilization youth conduct problem behavior parental history of deployment and family conflict were each positively associated with attendance whereas parent tobacco use was negatively associated with attendance. These results highlight the challenges in recruiting military families into in person prevention programs and suggest that extra efforts may be needed to engage families that do not perceive that they have a need for support.

Creating Outstanding Classrooms Oliver Knight, David Benson, 2013-10-15 This timely new book outlines a whole school approach to embedding a sustainable model of teaching and learning that puts the learner at the heart of the system. It provides an entire framework for ensuring all students achieve above their expectations incorporating school vision, teacher professional development, assessment models, school culture, leadership and management and core classroom practices. It takes what the current research suggests does and does not work and builds it into a practical approach that has been tried, tested and proven to work. Each section incorporates the research, a model of how this can be embedded across a school and then a training section that allows senior leaders in schools to teach the skill set to others to ensure it can be embedded and reviewed. Covering all aspects of teaching and learning including curriculum design, teacher practices, assessment and leadership, the book features a clear planning framework that is easy to implement, subject based case studies to exemplify good practice, diagrams to clarify and consolidate information, training activities throughout each chapter, also available to download at www.routledge.com/9780415831178. Designed to be used as a training tool for both new and established teachers, this book is essential reading for senior leaders that want to equip their teachers with the skills and knowledge to create a school of outstanding classrooms.

Cracking the code UNESCO, 2017-09-04 This report aims to crack the code by deciphering the factors that hinder and facilitate girls and women's participation, achievement and continuation in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) education and in particular what the education sector can do to promote girls and women's interest in and engagement with STEM education and ultimately STEM careers.

Understanding Student Participation and Choice in Science and Technology Education Ellen Karoline Henriksen, Justin Dillon, Jim Ryder, 2014-09-17 Drawing on data generated by the EU's Interests and Recruitment in Science (IRIS) project, this volume examines the issue of young people's participation in science, technology, engineering and mathematics education. With an especial focus on female participation, the chapters offer analysis deploying varied theoretical frameworks including sociology, social psychology and gender studies. The material also includes reviews of relevant research in science education and summaries of empirical data concerning student choices in STEM disciplines in five European countries. Featuring both quantitative and qualitative analyses, the book makes a substantial contribution to the developing theoretical agenda in STEM education. It augments available empirical data and identifies strategies in policy making that could lead to improved participation and gender balance in STEM disciplines. The majority of the chapter authors are IRIS project members with additional chapters written by specially invited contributors. The book provides researchers and policy makers alike with a comprehensive and authoritative exploration of the core issues in STEM educational participation.

Psychology and

Mathematics Education Gila Hanna, Laura Macchi, Karin Binder, Laura Martignon, Katharina Loibl, 2023-09-05 Modern Mathematics is constructed rigorously through proofs based on truths which are either axioms or previously proven theorems. Thus it is par excellence a model of rational inquiry. Links between Cognitive Psychology and Mathematics Education have been particularly strong during the last decades. Indeed the Enlightenment view of the rational human mind that reasons makes decisions and solves problems based on logic and probabilities was shaken during the second half of the twentieth century. Cognitive psychologists discovered that humans' thoughts and actions often deviate from rules imposed by strict normative theories of inference. Yet these deviations should not be called errors as Cognitive Psychologists have demonstrated these deviations may be either valid heuristics that succeed in the environments in which humans have evolved or biases that are caused by a lack of adaptation to abstract information formats. Humans as the cognitive psychologist and economist Herbert Simon claimed do not usually optimize but rather satisfice even when solving problem. This Research Topic aims at demonstrating that these insights have had a decisive impact on Mathematics Education. We want to stress that we are concerned with the view of bounded rationality that is different from the one espoused by the heuristics and biases program. In Simon's bounded rationality and its direct descendant ecological rationality, rationality is understood in terms of cognitive success in the world correspondence rather than in terms of conformity to content free norms of coherence e.g. transitivity.
