Daniele Caramani

2014 Grd 1oct Nov Economics P2:

The Economics and Law of Public Procurement Annalisa Castelli, Gustavo Piga, Tünde Tátrai, 2024-12-11 Public procurement makes up a significant part of national economies 10 25% of gross domestic product GDP depending on the country Appropriate laws and regulations are an essential tool to direct the action of procurers towards the public good and avoid corruption and misallocation of resources while at the same time sustaining progress and social goals The original approach of this book combines juridical economic and technical expertise to find common terrain and a common language in order to debate the specific issues that affect public administrations across the world that need advancing and modernizing The book features contributions across four specific themes of interest to the procurer s day to day job in modern public purchasing organizations preferences and political economy in public procurement climate change defence procurement and human rights in public procurement The aim is to let the new emerging trade offs between competition and sustainability emerge highlighting at the same time the possible synergies between the relevant policy objectives The book takes into account sectoral specificities reinforced by recent global events such as wars natural disasters and populism The unique format features in each section an interdisciplinary debate between two experts across different disciplines who deliberate and engage one another so as to improve the mutual understanding across disciplines followed by two additional contributions This book will be of interest to scholars researchers and policymakers worldwide EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education Cambridge International AS and A Level Economics Coursebook with CD-ROM Colin Bamford, Susan

The Annalist ,1938 The European Union After the Crisis Hugo Radice,2017-10-02 The global financial and economic crisis struck the European Union and its member states with particular force from 2009 onwards The immediate problem was the knock on effects of the crisis on each country s public finances Bank bail outs imposed a massive increase in sovereign debt on member states while the economic recession unavoidably led to ballooning budget deficits via the usual mechanisms of reduced taxes and increased welfare spending Subsequently the Eurozone sovereign debt crisis exposed the hidden weaknesses in the monetary and financial arrangements that had accompanied the launch of the Euro the severe economic imbalance between member states rooted in longer term structural divergences and the inadequate institutional mechanisms for resolving these difficulties This book originated from an EU funded international research network on Systemic Risks Financial Crises and Credit the Roots Dynamics and Consequences of the Sub Prime Crisis Contributions explore and evaluate some of the ways in which the institutions and policies of the European Union and its member states have changed in response to the problems brought about by the crisis This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies

A Taxing Journey Paolo de Renzio,2024-01-25 This open access book examines how civic organizations can influence tax policy and administration in ways that benefit ordinary citizens through in depth case studies from a wide range of countries including France Guatemala Kenya Mexico Philippines Uganda and the United States These cases demonstrate the ways in which civic coalitions have crafted convincing narratives and used creative strategies to change the political incentives of policymakers and yield more equitable tax reform The cases cover a wide range of types of tax reform from taxes on specific items like fuel tobacco and mobile money applications to personal and corporate income taxes They also highlight the use of a variety of approaches by civic actors such as media campaigns advocacy with legislators and strategic litigation to influence policy These examples covering a range of lower and higher income countries across many aspects of tax systems give us useful examples to build on demonstrating that citizens everywhere can influence tax policy and ultimately secure fairer societies The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4 0 licence on www.bloomsburycollections.com
