Globalisation and Education Policy Reform in Botswana Richard Tabulawa, 2023-07-21 This book uses the global local dialect approach to explicate education policy reform in Botswana and interrogates the practical effects of the various education policies on curriculum pedagogy and governance of the Botswana General Education system Considering the effect of three reform policies since Botswana's Independence in 1966 the book evaluates the performance of each of the policies and examines their consequences in terms of the interplay of global forces and domestic pressures The result of this interplay has been an education landscape that while reflecting globally circulating education discourses markedly differs from those same discourses The book argues that the State in Botswana has appropriated education policy to legitimate itself in times of crisis and that each policy has improved access to general education but collectively have failed to improve its quality making suggestions for how this can be improved in the future As the first book of its kind to delve into education in Botswana from a single authored critical lens the book will be a highly relevant reading for academics researchers and post graduate students of African education comparative education education policy and curriculum studies

Weaving a Malawi Sunrise Roberta Laurie, 2015-11-23 When you educate a girl you educate a nation Malawian saying The women of Malawi like many other women in developing countries struggle to find their way out of poverty and build a better life for themselves and their families Weaving a Malawi Sunrise tells the story of Memory Chazeza's quest to get an education and to build a school for young women Roberta Laurie was one of many who helped Memory realize her vision of seeing young girls become strong and independent women who could care for themselves and their future families During her time in Malawi Laurie met several other women each of whom had a story of her own Laurie combines these personal accounts with detailed information about the country's underlying social and political context Readers interested in Africa global affairs women's studies development and international education will give high marks to Weaving a Malawi Sunrise

Preparation and Development of School Leaders in Africa Pontso Moorosi, Tony Bush, 2019-11-28 The book is based on African research and reviews on school leadership preparation and development taking stock of where the field is in this geographical region and what lies ahead The exclusive focus on sub-Saharan African countries is driven by the desire to foreground African experiences highlighting gaps and asking critical questions about contextually relevant models of leadership that can drive towards improved educational outcomes for African children The countries explored include Botswana Cameroon Ghana Kenya Lesotho Namibia Nigeria South Africa and Tanzania Written by a collective of seasoned researchers with extensive experience in the field and on the continent this volume is timely as the field is in need of serious political attention For these reasons the book is an important resource for policy makers school leaders and other practitioners students educators of school leadership preparation programmes as well as researchers in the field on the continent and the diaspora

New Horizon of Psychological Assessment in Education (Penerbit USM) Melissa Ng Lee Yen Abdullah, Lim Hooi Lian, Hairul Nizam Ismail, 2019-08-09 Psychological assessments are used in the field of education to find answers for the questions raised concerning the student's intellectual, academic, social and emotional functioning. The collection, integration and interpretation of all information and data gathered from the assessment will enable better understanding of the student's characteristics and capacities. More effective interventions, recommendations and referrals can then be implemented. This book offers researchers and practitioners insights on assessment concepts and practices that are in line with the demand of education in the 21st century. As the new horizon unfolded, there is a paradigm shift in assessment moving from macro to micro level of learning from accountability of school to supporting teaching and learning from summative to formative and diagnostics from assessing achievement of individuals to catering of learning needs of diverse learners. The new horizon of assessment serves as a catalyst for more effective psychological assessment in educational research and practice. The Highest Exam Ruixue Jia, Hongbin Li, Claire Cousineau, 2025-09-09 The Highest Exam provides a detailed research-driven survey of the gaokao, China's high-stakes college entrance exam. Ruixue Jia and Hongbin Li, past test takers themselves, show how the exam system shapes schooling, serves state interests, inspires individualistic attitudes, and has lately become a touchstone in US education debates. Prosecuting Conflict-related Sexual Violence at the ICTY Serge Brammertz, Michelle J. Jarvis, 2016 Although sexual violence directed at both females and males is a reality in many ongoing conflicts throughout the world today, accountability for the perpetrators of such violence remains the exception rather than the rule. While awareness of the problem is growing, more effective approaches are urgently needed for the investigation and prosecution of conflict-related sexual violence crimes. Upon its establishment in 1993, the Office of the Prosecutor (OTP) of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY) began the challenging task of prosecuting the perpetrators of conflict-related sexual violence crimes alongside the many other atrocities committed during the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia.
This book documents the experiences, achievements, challenges, and fundamental insights of the OTP in prosecuting conflict-related sexual violence crimes at the ICTY over the past two decades. It draws on an extensive dossier of OTP documentation, court filings, trial exhibits, testimony, ICTY judgements, and other materials, as well as interviews with current and former OTP staff members The authors provide a unique analytical perspective on the obstacles faced in prioritizing investigating and prosecuting conflict related sexual violence crimes While ICTY has made great strides in developing international criminal law in this area this volume exposes the pressing need for determined and increasingly sophisticated strategies in order to overcome the ongoing obstacles in prosecuting conflict related sexual violence crimes The book presents concrete recommendations to inform future work being done at the national and international levels including that of the International Criminal Court international investigation commissions and countries developing transitional justice processes It provides an essential resource for investigators and criminal lawyers human rights fact finders policy makers rule of law experts and academics Human Rights and International Criminal Law Borhan Uddin Khan,Md. Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan,2022-03-16

This book examines the importance of international criminal law in promoting and defending human rights as well as its relationship with law and international politics It highlights criminal cases at the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunals for Rwanda the International Criminal Court and the International Crimes Tribunal of Bangladesh The book considers human rights approaches to crimes from a theoretical and practical perspective analyses various crimes under international law and examines the application implementation and enforcement of international criminal law This book will serve as an important reference for students teachers scholars and lawyers specialising in international human rights international criminal law and international humanitarian law Relevant Chemistry Education Ingo Eilks,Avi Hofstein,2015-07-22 This book is aimed at chemistry teachers teacher educators chemistry education researchers and all those who are interested in increasing the relevance of chemistry teaching and learning as well as students perception of it The book consists of 20 chapters Each chapter focuses on a certain issue related to the relevance of chemistry education These chapters are based on a recently suggested model of the relevance of science education encompassing individual societal and vocational relevance its present and future implications as well as its intrinsic and extrinsic aspects Two highly distinguished chemical educators Ingo Eilks and AviHofstein have brought together 40 internationally renowned colleagues from 16 countries to offer an authoritative view of chemistry teaching today Between them the authors in 20 chapters give an exceptional description of the current state of chemical education and signpost the future in both research and in the classroom There is special emphasis on the many attempts to enthuse students with an understanding of the central science chemistry which will be helped by having an appreciation of the role of the science in today s world Themes which transcend all education such as collaborative work communication skills attitudes inquiry learning and teaching and problem solving are covered in detail and used in the context of teaching modern chemistry The book is divided into four parts which describe the individual the societal the vocational and economic and the non formal dimensions and the editors bring all the disparate leads into a coherent narrative that will be highly satisfying to experienced and new researchers and to teachers with the daunting task of teaching such an intellectually demanding subject Just a brief glance at the index and the references will convince anyone interested in chemical education that this book is well worth studying it is scholarly and readable and has tackled the most important issues in chemical education today and in the foreseeable future Professor David Waddington Emeritus Professor in Chemistry Education University of York United Kingdom
