Intersection of Star Culture in America and International Medical Tourism Kathy Merlock Jackson, Lisa Lyon Payne, Kathy Shepherd Stolley, 2015-12-24 Celebrity culture health care and travel attract attention in America s media saturated society These worlds curiously intersect in the study of medical tourism Although the US touts some of the finest and best known medical facilities in the world many jet setting A list celebrities who can well afford the finest of health care seek treatment far away from home popularizing international sites physicians and procedures These travelers whose every move is chronicled by the media both reflect and influence health care concerns in America An analysis of these high profile cases of celebrities with both life threatening and non life threatening conditions sheds light on the link between medical tourism and celebrity showing how health care and entertainment intersect and the American public responds The Intersection of Star Culture in America and International Medical Tourism Celebrity Treatment argues that celebrity cases and media content drive awareness of medical tourism among Americans at a time when the medical system is under intense scrutiny By popularizing international sites for treatment procedures not available in the US and different approaches to patient care media narratives present options for health care triggering dialogue on one of America s most important human welfare issues European Journal of Tourism Research ,2017-06-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an interdisciplinary scientific journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as management marketing sociology psychology geography political sciences mathematics statistics anthropology culture information technologies and others are invited The journal is open to all researchers Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions Regular Articles in the European Journal of Tourism Research should normally be between 4 000 and 20 000 words Major research articles of between 10 000 and 20 000 are highly welcome Longer or shorter papers will also be considered The journal publishes also Research Notes of 1 500 2 000 words Submitted papers must combine theoretical concepts with practical applications or empirical testing The European Journal of Tourism Research includes also the following sections Book Reviews announcements for Conferences and Seminars abstracts of successfully defended Doctoral Dissertations in Tourism case studies of Tourism Best Practices The European Journal of Tourism Research is published in three Volumes per year The full text of the European Journal of Tourism Research is available in the following databases EBSCO Hospitality and Tourism CompleteCABI Leisure Recreation and TourismProQuest Research Library Individual articles can be rented via journal s page at DeepDyve The journal is indexed in Scopus and Thomson Reuters Emerging Sources Citation Index The editorial team welcomes your submissions to the European Journal of Tourism Research Multimedia Communications, Services and Security Andrzej Dziech,Andrzej Czyzewski,2014-05-20 This volume constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Multimedia Communications Services and Security MCSS 2014 held in Krakow Poland in June 2014 The 21 full papers included in the volume were selected from numerous submissions The papers cover ongoing research activities in the following topics audiovisual systems novel multimedia architectures multimedia data fusion acquisition of multimedia content quality of experience management watermarking technology and applications content searching methods interactive multimedia applications cybercrime countermeasures cryptography biometry as well as privacy protection solutions A Sustainable Tourism Workforce Shelagh Mooney,Richard N.S. Robinson,David J. Solnet,Tom Baum,2024-02-15 This book brings together issues of social justice and the neglect of a sustainable orientation to the tourism workforce This has resulted in an impoverished unsustainable and transient workforce that does not meet the aims of UN sustainable goals within the sector or indeed the UNTWO Code of ethics towards its employees The introductory review and 15 chapters in this volume each make a unique and distinct contribution to knowledge The opening review presents a critique of current definitions of sustainability in an employment and specifically in a tourism employment context acknowledging and critiquing extant literature It uniquely recognises the themes submitted on the topic of sustainable work in the book as well as those which comprise the final selection of chapters These exercises culminate in the presentation of a refreshed conceptualisation of sustainable employment The chapters were mapped onto a proposed conceptual framework which recognises the multi dimensional influences of the evolving Sustainable Development Goals SDGs recent Sustainable Human Resource Management SHRM and tourism literature and fresh contributions to theory Additionally the introductory review offers concluding remarks that the authors hope will influence and guide future research endeavours The book will be invaluable to educators students and policymakers interested in information and guidance on managing sustainable tourism Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Blended
