Information Retrieval Evaluation in a Changing World Nicola Ferro, Carol Peters, 2019-08-13 This volume celebrates the twentieth anniversary of CLEF the Cross Language Evaluation Forum for the first ten years and the Conference and Labs of the Evaluation Forum since and traces its evolution over these first two decades CLEF's main mission is to promote research innovation and development of information retrieval IR systems by anticipating trends in information management in order to stimulate advances in the field of IR system experimentation and evaluation The book is divided into six parts Parts I and II provide background and context with the first part explaining what is meant by experimental evaluation and the underlying theory and describing how this has been interpreted in CLEF and in other internationally recognized evaluation initiatives Part II presents research architectures and infrastructures that have been developed to manage experimental data and to provide evaluation services in CLEF and elsewhere Parts III IV and V represent the core of the book presenting some of the most significant evaluation activities in CLEF ranging from the early multilingual text processing exercises to the later more sophisticated experiments on multimodal collections in diverse genres and media In all cases the focus is not only on describing what has been achieved but above all on what has been learnt The final part examines the impact CLEF has had on the research world and discusses current and future challenges both academic and industrial including the relevance of IR benchmarking in industrial settings Mainly intended for researchers in academia and industry it also offers useful insights and tips for practitioners in industry working on the evaluation and performance issues of IR tools and graduate students specializing in information retrieval

Banking's Final Exam Morris Goldstein, 2017-05-30 Spurred by the success of the first stress test of US banks toward the end of the global economic crisis in 2009 stress testing of large financial institutions has become the cornerstone of banking supervision worldwide The aim of the tests is to determine which banks are adequately capitalized under severe economic shocks and to order corrective measures for those that are vulnerable In Banking's Final Exam one of the world's leading experts on banking regulation concludes that the tests administered on both sides of the Atlantic suffer from fundamental weaknesses leading to a false sense of reassurance about the safety and soundness of the banking system Some weaknesses can be corrected within the existing bank capital regime but others will require bold reforms including higher minimum capital requirements for the largest and most systemically important banks The banking industry is likely to resist these reforms but this book explains why their objections do not hold water

Overview: MELQO UNESCO, UNICEF, World Bank, Brookings Institution (USA). Center for Universal Education, 2017-08-14 The Measuring Early Learning Quality and Outcomes MELQO initiative began in 2014 as part of the global emphasis on early childhood development ECD Led by UNESCO the World Bank the Center for Universal Education at the Brookings Institution and UNICEF the initiative aims to promote feasible accurate and useful measurement of children's development and learning at the start of primary school and of the quality of their pre primary learning environments Items are designed for children between the ages of 4 and 6 years Following the premise that many existing tools include similar items the leading organizations core team worked with a consortium of experts non governmental organizations NGOs and multilaterals to build upon current measurement tools to create a common set of items organized into modules for measuring 1 early childhood development and learning and 2 the quality of pre primary learning environments The MELQO core team and experts also collaborated to outline a process for context specific adaptation of the measurement modules resulting from lessons learned from field testing in several countries in 2015 and 2016 The modules are designed to be implemented at scale with an emphasis on feasibility for low and middle income countries LMICs A key question addressed by MELQO was the balance between a global tool suitable for use everywhere and local priorities and goals for children s development
