Karimundackal,2017-10-01 Deuteronomy 10 12 11 32 is a very important text for the book of Deuteronomy However it has not received an adequate exegetical treatment so far The present study intends to meet this need Following a synchronic approach Thomas Karimundackal examines the text exegetically and theologically in its context He analyzes the text extensively by referring to its intense relationships within Deuteronomy and with other biblical books He shows how Deuteronomy 10 12 11 32 serves as a hermeneutical key to understand and interpret the theology of Deuteronomy As a transitional passage it connects the former framework and the Law Code in Deuteronomy and thus forms a bridge In addition it is repeatedly connected to the latter framework of Deuteronomy and thus proves to be a hermeneutical key to the book From a theological point of view the unique statements about God in Deut 10 stand out The author also reflects on the role of the community and the contemporary relevance of the text      Public Health Service Publication ,      Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States.
