Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1849 Black Power in South Africa Gail M. Gerhart,2023-04-28 This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC of the late 1940s to the South African Student Organization SASO and the Black Consciousness Movement of the 1970s Perspective Clarifies some of the main issues that have divided the black leadership and rescues the work of some pioneering nationalist theorists It's an absorbing piece of history New York Times Informative and well researched She ably explores the nuances of the two main movements until 1960 and explains why blacks were so receptive to black consciousness in the late Sixties New York Review This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC Student Resistance to Apartheid at the University of Fort Hare Rico Devara Chapman,2016-05-12 The book explores forms of popular student resistance to apartheid education in South Africa particularly at the University of Fort Hare UFH by tracing student activism at UFH from 1970 to 2000

highlighting the factors that influenced the development of a culture of student resistance investigating the root causes that made Fort Hare exceptional in its stand against apartheid and chronicling the educational and social implications that resulted from students unparalleled and fearless actions against the apartheid system Student resistance at Fort Hare can be traced as far back as the 1940s however this book will primarily focus on the critical 1970 2000 period which was marked by increased student activism in South Africa The 1980s and 1990s were peak years for student activism in the country There is no doubt that student struggles during this period and thereafter helped dismantle apartheid and usher in a new South African government

Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris Saunders, Helder Adegas Fonseca, Lena Dallywater, 2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings
