20christian Voter Guide And Michigan:

Voting Technology Paul S. Herrnson, Richard G. Niemi, Michael J. Hanmer, 2009-03-19 Voting difficulties hung over America's presidential election in 2000 like a dark cloud Hanging chads a butterfly ballot and the Supreme Court remain the most vivid memories of that political donnybrook Passage of 2002's Help America Vote Act sparked further interest in the physical process of casting a ballot yet several recent contests still produced confusion at the polls A solution to at least some of those problems may be found in new technology but such innovations carry their own concerns and questions Voting Technology is the first book to investigate in a scientific and authoritative manner how voters respond to the new equipment The authors an interdisciplinary group of experts in American elections political behavior human computer interaction and human factors psychology assess five commercially available voting systems each one representing a specific class based on shared design principles as well as a prototype system not currently available They evaluate the systems against different criteria including ease of use speed and accuracy using field experiments laboratory experiments and expert reviews The results reveal the good and bad about the new systems including specific features that contribute to clarity confusion or error Going beyond the concern with spoiled ballots they determine whether voters actually cast their ballots for the candidates they intended to support They address fundamental questions of whether voters like and trust the equipment and whether the various systems are equally usable by all voters Their research also opens up an entirely new line of inquiry by asking about the interaction between ballot format and voter behavior The concluding chapter pulls together best practices that will guide manufacturers of voting systems ballot designers election officials political observers and of course voters In a political system based on free exercise of personal choice the least w Christian Herald ,1965 Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church ,1935 Christian Advocate ,1936-07 National Council Outlook ,1953 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1916 *National Library Service Cumulative Book Review Index, 1905-1974: Authors.
