Teaching the Media

Andrew Hart,2013-12-16 In TEACHING THE MEDIA INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES Andrew Hart initiates a challenging dialogue about approaches to Media teaching in the major English speaking nations of the world including the United States Canada the United Kingdom Australia and South Africa By animating actual lessons and the considered views of classroom practitioners TEACHING THE MEDIA encourages readers to develop new perspectives on Media teaching to examine approaches that differ from their own and to reflect critically on their own practices with a view to understanding them more fully and enhancing their effectiveness in the classroom Based on original research that began in England in the early 1990s this is the first international comparative study to focus on Media Education in English speaking countries It systematically examines classroom strategies for Media teaching in the light of the major theoretical paradigms which have emerged globally over the last 50 years It analyses the rich diversity of different educational concerns goals and classroom practices through a series of national studies of teachers and lessons As a result not only do we see how Media is actually taught in range of classroom contexts but existing models of Media teaching can now be more precisely critiqued and made more accessible for further research and development
