"Meeting" Anne Frank Tim Whittome, 2021-03-07 Meeting Anne Frank An Anthology captures the stories of some twenty of us who have walked with Anne Frank and her sister Margot as kindred spirits over the course of the many decades that have elapsed since both girls died from typhus and Nazi cruelty in Bergen Belsen in 1945 None writing here actually met or knew Anne personally but we have talked to her and journeyed with her kindred spirit Anne Frank unites us at a time when so much of the world is riven by the familiar and divisive themes of partisan politics anti-Semitism and prejudice You will though be meeting those who did know Anne's most adorable father Otto and they have kindly shared their vivid stories in this volume You will be seeing how we cherish not just the loving father daughter relationship that has come to mean so much for many of us but also the inspiration of Anne's patient mother Edith and her ladylike older sister Margot Several of Anne's surviving school friends also appear in the journeys undertaken by a number of my contributors In the years since she died in 1945 Anne Frank has become variously the sister mother wife daughter girlfriend or best friend to each of us writing for this anthology and to many in the wider world We honor the happy and tragic story of Anne s brief life and recognize the existence of at least two Annes in both her sense of fun and mischief and in her growing self awareness while in hiding Anne was only a child while she lived freely at Merwedeplein 37 in Amsterdam The Netherlands and barely a teenager when she died in a Nazi concentration camp for the simple crime of being Jewish Anne wanted to go on living after her death in February or March 1945 and I hope we have honored her lasting wish in this work Designing a Thinking Curriculum

Susan Wilks,2005-10-01 Designing a Thinking Curriculum responds to the challenge of disengagement in the middle years of schooling by providing teachers and administrators with ideas for the implementation of a thinking curriculum in their schools Teachers teacher educators and curriculum consultants describe how they have been influenced by theorists their use of appropriate cognitive theories and strategies they have developed that will assist students to develop higher order thinking skills Ways of accommodating a variety of learning styles and establishing supportive school structures are also presented Teachers in this book show how they have Modelled their curricula around ideas and issues generated by students Linked substantive real problems to curriculum content Ensured that students achieve deep knowledge and understanding Fostered higher order thinking through the use of technology creative thinking the visual arts and mathematical and scientific ideas Designing a Thinking Curriculum will inspire inform and motivate teachers looking to implement a thinking curriculum in the middle years of schooling It is a practical first hand account of the experiences of teaching colleagues based on sound pedagogy Signs of Change Joan Lazarus,2004

In the world of secondary theatre education the impetus for change can arise at any moment because the needs of our adolescents and the conditions under which we teach them are in constant motion How do successful theatre teachers keep pace with change while continuing to create student centered life changing educational experiences As a veteran theatre educator Joan Lazarus recognizes that there is no one size fits all answer that s why in researching Signs of Change she interviewed 100 different members of the field to see how real teachers cope with the shifting demands of theatre education Lazarus gives you a glimpse of active dynamic professionals in motion hurdling obstacles tweaking ideas or completely overhauling their curriculum in response to the challenges their programs face You ll go behind the scenes and discover theatre education innovations that work methods to make them happen in your school and inspiring stories of how these changes will improve both your teaching and the lives of your students Change can come without warning and it can seem scary but it can also stimulate a level of professional growth you never imagined possible With her emphasis on best practices hands on activities drawn from her interviews and rock solid educational theory to back it all up Joan Lazarus will change how you look at your practice and how you look at change
