Ancient Egypt Michelle Breyer,1996-09 Ancient Egypt Mary Ellen Sterling,1992 Activities are correlated to the books Pyramid and The Egypt game Art of Ancient Egypt Edith Whitney Watts,Barry Girsh,1998 Hands-on Culture of Ancient Egypt Kate O'Halloran,1997 Six different world cultures are the focus of Hands On Culture Japan Mexico and Central America Southeast Asia West Africa Ancient Egypt and Ancient Greece and Rome These colorful volumes examine each culture s art science history geography and language and literature From making sushi to designing a drum to reading hieroglyphics students use an array of hands on activities to grow more culturally aware and appreciative if differences among peoples Topics in this volume include Egyptian religion hundreds of gods Hieroglyphics picture writing Playing games Drama the Festival of Osiris Making a mummy See other Hands on Culture titles The War Play Dilemma Diane E. Levin,2006 As violence in the media and media linked toys increases parents and teachers are also seeing an increase in children s war play The authors have revised this popular text to provide more practical guidance for working with children to promote creative play and for positively influencing the lessons about violence children are learning Using a developmental and sociopolitical viewpoint the authors examine five possible strategies for resolving the war play dilemma and show which best satisfy both points of view banning war play taking a laissez faire approach allowing war play with specified limits actively facilitating war play and limiting war play while providing alternative ways to work on the issues New for the Second Edition are more anecdotal material about adults and children s experiences with war play including examples from both home and school settings greater emphasis on the impact of media and commercialization on children s war play including recent trends in media programming marketing and war toys expanded discussion about the importance of the distinction between imitative and creative war play and summary boxes of key points directed at teachers or parents New information about violent video games media cross feeding and gender development and sex role stereotyping

Drama Lessons In Action Antoinette Line,1997 Atlas of Egyptian Mummies in the Czech Collections II: Non-Adult Human Mummies Pavel Onderka,Gabriela Vrtalová,2022-01-01 Ancient Egyptian mummies and their funerary equipment are an invaluable source of information not only on the Egyptians perception of death but more importantly on their lives diseases and traumas they suffered from activities they carried out their family relations and more The present volume second in the series of Atlas of Egyptian Mummies in the Czech Collections is dedicated to mummies and funerary containers of non adults aged 15 and younger Two complete mummies twelve isolated parts from ten individuals and six funerary containers were introduced in a detailed catalogue along with their respective provenances and brief excursions into the health and disease of ancient Egyptian children and their funerary treatment The studied material came from the collections of two divisions of the National Museum in Prague namely the N prstek Museum of Asian African and American Cultures and the Natural History Museum The mummies were examined using non invasive methods and the results were compared to those published in the past The containers two boxes two hampers and two jars represent only a small part of typological repertoire of containers used for the deposition of burials of non adult individuals While the non adult mummies and their isolated parts are without provenience all of the six containers come from modern excavations at well documented cemeteries at Deir el Medina and Abusir Examination by non invasive methods especially computed tomography brought to light several findings including one possible case of traumatic death and one possible case of rickets Information on the use of mummification substances and techniques including the reinforcement of spine were also reported

Arabic Dialogues Rachel Mairs,2024-03-04 During the nineteenth century and into the early twentieth century more Europeans visited the Middle East than ever before as tourists archaeologists pilgrims settler colonists and soldiers These visitors engaged with the Arabic language to differing degrees While some were serious scholars of Classical Arabic in the Orientalist mould many did not learn the language at all Between these two extremes lies a neglected group of language learners who wanted to learn enough everyday colloquial Arabic to get by The needs of these learners were met by popular language books which boasted that they could provide an easy route to fluency in a difficult language Arabic Dialogues explores the motivations of Arabic learners and effectiveness of instructional materials principally in Egypt and Palestine by analysing a corpus of Arabic phrasebooks published in nine languages English French German Spanish Portuguese Italian Yiddish Hebrew Russian and in the territory of twenty five modern countries Beginning with Napoleon s Expedition d gypte 1798 1801 it moves through the periods of mass tourism and European colonialism in the Middle East concluding with the Second World War The book also considers how Arab intellectuals understood the project of teaching Arabic to foreigners the remarkable history of Arabic learning among Yiddish and Hebrew speaking immigrants in Palestine and the networks of language learners teachers and plagiarists who produced these phrasebooks

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia s coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture

throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in African itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin, 2008-03-12 Here at last is the massively updated and augmented second edition of this landmark encyclopedia It contains approximately 1000 entries dealing in depth with the history of the scientific technological and medical accomplishments of cultures outside of the United States and Europe The entries consist of fully updated articles together with hundreds of entirely new topics This unique reference work includes intercultural articles on broad topics such as mathematics and astronomy as well as thoughtful philosophical articles on concepts and ideas related to the study of non Western Science such as rationality objectivity and method You ll also find material on religion and science East and West and magic and science Jelly Beans Joseph McNair Stover, 1998 Contains nine original scenes for two three and four young players Interactive Literacy - Multimedia Texts for Whole Class Teaching Pearson Education, 2004-06-24 Each CD is accompanied by a FREE Teaching Guide however the opportunity to purchase additional teachers guides is available by clicking to order on the adjacent tab Teaching in Themes Deborah Meier, Matthew Knoester, Katherine Clunis D'Andrea, 2015 How do teachers and schools create meaningful learning experiences for students with diverse skills abilities and cultures How can teachers authentically assess the learning of their students and build on their strengths and interests in ways that enrich the larger community How can schools be turned into places where everyone is learning from each other These are the big questions that guide the work of teachers at the well known Mission Hill School in Boston and that are addressed in this book Teaching in Themes will help schools incorporate a whole school theme based curriculum that engages students across grade levels K 8 The authors provide detailed descriptions of four thematic units What s Baking Learning Together About Bread and Bakeries The Impact of Nature and Play The Struggle for Justice U S History Through the Eyes of African Americans and Astronomical Inquiries Readers will see how teachers and students design emergent inquiries within the themes and create artwork music presentations and a variety of hands on learning experiences that support differentiated instruction across the curriculum Book Features Examples of whole school projects designed to create a deep sense of immersion in a curricular theme and to build a multi age learning community Details of how teachers developed rich curriculum tailored to their unique students The insights of legendary educator Deborah Meier on how whole school thematic units were used to encourage collaboration among teachers An afterword by teachers and film makers about the thinking behind their work featured in the widely viewed film series A Year at Mission Hill The schools Deborah Meier created in New York and Boston are outstanding examples of democratic education in action I will never forget the first time

I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike. I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio-based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread. I still do. Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities.

Linda Darling Hammond, Charles E. Ducommun, Professor of Education, Stanford University. Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores. Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children, adults, and a democratic society, past and present. Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School, its goals, curriculum, classroom lessons, and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school.

Larry Cuban, Professor Emeritus of Education, Stanford University. Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction; it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts. This book gives a behind-the-scenes look at Mission Hill, a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school.

Ron Berger, chief academic officer, Expeditionary Learning. It's Not Your Fault Jillian Campana, Dina Amin, The Cairo Writers Lab, 2023-03-07. A collection of original short plays that focus on sexual harassment and assault in Egypt by debut Egyptian playwrights. These five original short plays written by Egyptian students from the American University in Cairo in collaboration with Jillian Campana and Dina Amin mark the first published plays in Egypt that deal directly with sexual harassment. Sexual crimes are not limited to the workplace or the street; they happen everywhere, from the bedroom to the cafe, in shops, on modes of transportation, and in businesses, homes, outdoor areas, and educational and religious institutions. They can be perpetrated by a stranger, acquaintance, friend, family member, or loved one, and they can encompass many different types of sexual violence, including verbal, non-verbal, physical, or visual violence. This collection breaks social taboos by offering dramatic texts that reflect the reality of survivors of sexual harassment from multiple perspectives: families and couples, bystanders, victims, and perpetrators, men and women. Many of the women portrayed in these plays are independent, educated, and well-to-do, but they are all subjected to varying degrees of sexual harassment and violence. Accompanied with narrative commentary that places the events in context, these plays and the issues they explore seek to challenge dominant perceptions about sexual harassment in the region and to shine light on the power imbalances and disparities that give rise to it. They will be of interest to artists, social science researchers, educators, and anyone interested in the issue of sexual harassment and collaborative theater processes.

Playwrights: Yehia Abdelghhan, Marwan Abdelmoneim, Nour El-Captan, Passant Faheem, Nour Ibrahim, Noran Morsi, and Omar Omar. The research on which this book is based was awarded the Times Higher Education 2023 MENA Award for Research Project of the Year, Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Performances of these plays are royalty free The Experience of Ancient Egypt Rosalie David,2002-09-09 The Experience of Ancient Egypt provides a comprehensive portrait of what we know about ancient Egypt today examining in detail issues of religion of beliefs and practices surrounding death of everyday life and of literature In an engaging style the author traces Egyptology from its classical roots through the painstaking process of deciphering Egyptian hieroglyphs in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the most up to date bio medical and archaeological techniques never forgetting how time has proved that it is impossible to deliver the absolute truth about ancient Egypt Schutzian Research vol. 1 / 2009 Michael Barber,2009 Nothing provided Ancient Egypt John Rearick,2002 The All Time Biggest Sports Jerks is short sweet and on point the skewering and roasting of the biggest hot dogs in baseball boxing golf football basketball hockey auto racing media and other fields of athletic play and extended adolescence With a sardonic sense of humor that is befitting some of the more infamous characters in sports history this collection is not simply a depressing recital of the pitfalls of the athletic rich and famous but the careful documenting of the infamous 100 jerks is complemented by the interesting stories rich anecdotes weapons grade one liners and stories that focus on some of the oddballs weirdos and even the oh so few good guys and gals in sports history
