animal fibres covered in this bulletin are of considerable importance to the world's textile industry. As a natural renewable resource they have been a vital factor in the development of mankind. Their products have provided protection from the elements and processing of them was one man's first rudimentary industries. This bulletin provides general background information on the main textile producing animals and detailed guidance on the harvesting techniques including preparation for sale. By following these guidelines growers will maximise the monetary value of the fibre and its value to the textile industry. Rural livelihoods in Mon State: Evidence from a representative household survey Filipski, Mateusz J., Van Asselt, Joanna, Nischan, Ulrike, Belton, Ben, Htoo, Kyan, Win, Myat Thida, Hein, Aung, Kham, L. Seng, Naing, Zaw Min, Payongayong, Ellen, Boughton, Duncan, 2017-05-05. The purpose of this report is to provide information and analysis to government civil society and donors interested in improving the well being of the rural population of Mon State Myanmar. Specifically the report analyzes the different sources of income for rural households as well as their socioeconomic characteristics with a view to helping identify constraints on growth and potential pathways to improving incomes. The overall picture that emerges is one of a struggling agricultural sector and an economy heavily dependent on services for local employment and on international migration for income. The analysis is based on a sample of 1 632 rural households designed to be representative of rural households in Mon State as a whole. The survey included a household questionnaire and a community survey and gathered information on demographics all economic aspects of the household and access to infrastructure and services at the community level. Official Reference Book and Buyers' Guide, 1987.
