National Identity in Contemporary Australian Opera Michael Halliwell,2017-09-11 Opera has been performed in Australia for more than two hundred years yet none of the operas written before the Second World War have become part of the repertoire It is only in the late 1970s and early 1980s that there is evidence of the successful systematic production of indigenous opera The premiere of Voss by Richard Meale and David Malouf in 1986 was a watershed in the staging and reception of new opera and there has been a diverse series of new works staged in the last thirty years not only by the national company but also by thriving regional institutions The emergence of a thriving operatic tradition in contemporary Australia is inextricably enmeshed in Australian cultural consciousness and issues of national identity In this study of eighteen representative contemporary operas Michael Halliwell elucidates the ways in which the operas reflect and engage with the issues facing contemporary Australians Stylistically these eighteen operas vary greatly The musical idiom is diverse ranging from works in a modernist idiom such as The Ghost Wife Whitsunday Fly Away Peter Black River and Bride of Fortune to Voss Batavia Bliss Lindy Midnight Son The Riders The Summer of the Seventeenth Doll and The Children s Bach being works which straddle several musical styles A number of operas draw strongly on musical theatre including The Eighth Wonder Pecan Summer The Rabbits and Cloudstreet and Love in the Age of Therapy is couched in a predominantly jazz idiom While some of them are overtly political all at least tangentially deal with recent cultural politics in Australia and offer sharply differing perspectives Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1986 Animals and Science Fiction

Nora Castle, Giulia Champion,2024-03-22 Animals and Science Fiction is the first edited collection to be published focusing on the intersection of animal studies and science fiction studies It offers a broad range of theoretical approaches and primary source texts including novels short stories poetry film and TV photography erotica video games and urban planning documents that explore the ways works of science fiction can transform how we see and interact with nonhuman others With an eye toward more just multispecies futures it argues that speculative imaginaries can be pivotal in changing attitudes toward and understandings of nonhuman animals in our world today Chapters appeal to those interested in biopolitics posthumanism new materialism ecocriticism and the environmental humanities ocean humanities postcolonial studies critical race studies Indigenous studies global sf studies film studies and food studies Taken together the collection works to showcase a diverse and growing field of scholarly inquiry into animals and science fiction Guide to Indian Periodical Literature ,2005 The College Board Guide to High Schools College Entrance Examination Board,1994

Dimensions of Humor Carmen Valero-Garcés,2011-11-28 This is the first edited volume dedicated specifically to exploring humor in the academic world It is a rich collection of essays by an international array of scholars representing various theoretical perspectives and practical orientations in the disciplines of Linguistics Literature Cultural Studies and Translation but all concerned with the interactional aspects of humor The two main reasons behind the publication of this volume are first to continue the journey along the path towards full recognition of humor as a discipline worthy of research and assessment and second to offer a new and integrating perspective on humor to showcase the wide range of dimensions that it offers This book is sure to become an important reference and source of inspiration for scholars in the various subfields of Humor Studies Linguistics Literature Cultural Studies and Translation Notes & Furphies ,1991
