Zimbabwe Journal of Educational Research, 2005 Sustainable Conservation of UNESCO and Other Heritage Sites Through Proactive Geosciences Gad Mohamed El-Qady, Claudio Margottini, 2023-02-10 This book presents up to date geoscience technologies for heritage investigations and conservation covering various sub disciplines of geophysics geodesy 3D laser scanning technology hydrogeology and rock mechanics applied to the exploration of new heritage sites mapping and visualization as well as hazard mitigation The current shift toward interdisciplinary ways of thinking highlights the added value of merging arts with sciences and other disciplines for better management and preservation of cultural heritage Featuring advanced scientific investigations in 40 case studies around the globe the book demonstrates how a better understanding of natural processes coupled with conservation approaches mainly based on sustainable practices such as the use of traditional knowledge in recovery techniques and building local capacities can ensure effective conservation

Botswana Cultural Heritage and Sustainable Tourism Development Byron A. Brown, Lelokwane L. Mokgalo, Tsitsi Chipfuva, 2020-04-16 This book considers cultural heritage and the sustainable development of tourism from an African perspective with Botswana as the main point of reference Within the African context Botswana is renowned for its abundance of cultural heritage and appeal to tourists The collection reconciles the growing demand to commodify cultural heritages the quest for cultural heritage preservation and management and the focus on sustainable tourism development in Botswana As such the book is an appraisal of and meditation on the business side of cultural heritage management and the value that cultural heritage resources have at a personal local and national level It is an exploration of the nature of Botswana's cultural heritage the politics and policies that underpin that heritage the development of cultural heritage tourism as a sustainable business the country's cultural heritage experiences and products and a confrontation of the hard questions about cultural heritage and the future As an introductory text the book gives tourists tourism students and academics as well as tourism entrepreneurs policymakers and practitioners a basis on which to make decisions Zimbabwe National Bibliography, 1985

Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa Pascall Taruvinga, 2022-08-25 Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa argues that World Heritage Sites WHS across the African continent should adopt practical innovative creative and alternative management approaches that bring greater socio economic benefits to society whilst protecting their Outstanding Universal Value Drawing on empirical evidence gathered in conversation with stakeholders at WHS across Africa the book explores the challenges involved in implementing conservation and socio economic development as a stakeholder driven process Demonstrating that heritage can no longer be viewed as totally separate from its socio economic context Pascall argues that decisions about the management of heritage need to make sense at the local level if they are to be supported by stakeholders As the book shows heritage is still viewed and managed through systems approaches and strategies inherited from the colonial period despite the increasing availability of inclusive governance systems Stakeholders offer alternative creative and innovative approaches that capitalize on the potential of World Heritage to contribute to socio economic development whilst ensuring that its credibility and integrity are maintained Stakeholder Perspectives on World Heritage and Development in Africa offers unique insights into local perspectives on World Heritage and development in Africa The book will be essential reading for academics students development partners and practitioners around the world who are interested in museums and heritage conservation development and the African continent Also the book will be useful in the preparation of nomination dossiers management plans development plans and in disaster risk management at WHS
